

The Weekly Monitor.

WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 23, 1887.

The Toronto Telegram strikes the right note in the following:—
When business men become bankrupt through mismanagement or misfortune, not through dishonesty, they are deserving of sympathy, and their creditors are justified in accepting a small sum on the dollar in settlement of their claims, in order that the liquidators may get a fresh start in life.

The most gorgeous spectacle of the winter carnival held at Montreal, while the ice carnival of the ice palace, which was described as follows by the Montreal Witness:—
Anything more beautiful than the illumination of the mountain and of the Palace last night, surely never was witnessed by man.

CARD OF THANKS.

TO MY MANY FRIENDS AND CUSTOMERS IN ANnapolis COUNTY:—

WE have now fairly entered upon another year, and as that just past has been one of greatly increased prosperity in my business, the sales for 1886 having exceeded those for 1885 by at least

$4,000, I wish to extend to you all my earnest thanks for your very liberal favors, which have thus crowned my efforts with success.

As in the past, I shall always use my utmost endeavors to please you, and bringing each year an added experience to my business, and a fuller knowledge of your wants, I feel satisfied that an inspection of my New Stock of English Goods for the Spring and Summer Trade, the orders for which are now being filled, will convince you that they surpass all previous importations,

both in extent and value, and will ensure your continued

and increased patronage.

In due course of time, full advertisements will be given of all the various lines.

Again thanking you for your favors, trusting that our pleasant relations may be long continued, and
