

Illustration No. 3 shows some of the old poplars which adorn the lower ramparts, built on the site of those which defended the city in 1759. The walls have been neglected, but are now being restored to their original condition by the Dominion Government.

The former head-quarters of the British Royal Artillery Officers is just beyond the poplars, in a pretty garden commanding a lovely

Part of the lower Ramparts.

view of the St. Charles valley. After the British troops left, the buildings were used as a school, and now as a factory for small arm cartridges.