FURS.

59. Officers shall use every effort in their power to prevent the killing of fur-bearing animals out of season, to assist in enforcing the Dominion and Provincial Laws on the subject, and shall endeavour to prevent the use of poison altogether.

Killing of fur-bearing animals out of season to be discouraged.

60. All fur-bearing animals killed by commissioned officers, clerks, postmasters and servants or furs possessed by them, not being for their personal use, shall be the property of the Company and shall be paid for at the rate allowed to Indian hunters, with the exception of the Montreal and Southern Departments and York Factory District, where the present tariffs shall be continued.

Fur-bearing animals killed or possessed by officers, clerks and servants to be traded with Company.

61. Officers, clerks, postmasters, and servants shall not take furs as presents from Indians or hunters, except for the Company, and to be paid for by the Company.

Officers, clerks and servants not permitted to take furs as presents.

62. Officers, clerks, postmasters and servants shall not take out of the district to which they are or have been attached any unmanufactured furs or leather unless purchased from the Company according to rule and with the leave of the officer in charge of the district.

Officers, clerks and servants not permitted to take furs out of districts.

63. No furs shall be purchased from the Company without the permission of the officer in charge of the district, and only such as are absolutely necessary for the personal use of himself or the members of his family resident with him shall be purchased from the Company by any officer, clerk, postmaster or servant. The price shall be that of furs of the same quality at the last London sale, the results of which are known. Such furs shall be priced by the officer in charge of the district, and be entered in the servants' book debts.

Prices of furs allowed to be purchased by Commissioned officers, clerks and servants.

64. Every pack of furs shall contain a list of the contents (see Form No. 5) signed by the officer or servant in charge of the packing, together with the date of packing, the mark and number of the pack.

Packs of furs to contain lists of contents.

65. Every shipment of furs shall be accompanied by a packing account shewing the contents and value of each pack (see Form No. 6), priced at the tariff valuation.
