

SMOKERS !

CUT IN PRICE

Since our Catalogue was issued, we have made a contract for a large number of smokers by piece work, at such figures as will enable us to reduce the prices. Here after the price of the No. 2 Smoker will be $1, (formerly $1.25,) with goods; $1.25 by mail,

HONEY TINS.

We now offer the "Penny Lever" Tin in three sizes. These are probably the handiest tin to handle and the price is a shave lower than the "Screw top."

A RARE CHANCE

For anyone desiring to make a start in breeding <sup>and</sup> poultry, or anyone wanting a good start with one <sup>breed</sup> I have to sell my entire stock of

PARTRIDGE COCHINS

on account of my intention to keep only Wyandott <sup>and</sup> in future. My Cochins are second to none. Cock <sup>and</sup> 94, one hen 94; Cock won as Cockerel last winter <sup>and</sup> at Brampton, only time shown, and is now a mag <sup>and</sup> cent bird. I have Cock, 2 Hens, 4 Cockerels, 13 Pullet. 4 Cockerels and 5 Pullets early March hatch and <sup>and</sup> are fine in feather; the other 8 Pullets are early April hatch. I prefer selling the lot together; 20 birds in all, for $30. or part cash and part trade for anything useful. I will ship on approval to any responsible buyer and guarantee satisfaction.

JOHN GRAY, TODMORDEN, ONTARIO.

The above is a good snap for some one.
