

doubtedly a cheap five cents worth. Some of the tunes we think, are excellent, such as, "Loving kindness," "Cross and Crown," and "Rock of Ages." Parties ordering a hundred copies or so at the Witness office will get them at a considerable reduction. The pamphlet is nicely got up. The typography is good. We trust these hymns will tend to foster the spirit of true revival in many hearts.

THE COMPLETE WORKS OF RICHARD SIBBES, VOLS. II and III. PURITAN DIVINES. Nichol, Edinburgh. Dawson Bros., Montreal. We are constrained to say that the publisher of the Divines of the Puritan period is fulfilling his obligations to his subscribers. These volumes of Sibbes' works have a fine appearance. The title of one of the sermons in vol. II. struck us as characteristic of the man, Breathing after God. The third volume contains an exposition on the first chapter of second Corinthians. The Editor of Sibbes' works, Mr. Grosart of Kinross, has appended some notes to the discourses and commentary of Sibbes, in these volumes, of great value, which betoken great industry and care.

INTELLIGENCE.

REV. MR. HAMMOND IN MONTREAL.—This noted evangelist spent a few weeks in Montreal at the close of the past year. He preached three Sabbaths, one in the American Presbyterian Church, and two in the Great St James Street Wesleyan Church. He preached also every evening in the American Church. During his stay indeed he was in labours most abundant. His labours appear to have given an impetus to the cause of religion in the city. It is said that numbers profess to be converted, and that large additions have been made to the churches in the city. Mr Hammond was well supported by the ministers of Montreal, Presbyterian ministers and Wesleyan. He appears to have great influence with children. The work appears to be still going on. We trust that pure and undefiled religion may abound more and more. We observe that Mr. Hammond has been ordained an evangelist in the city of New York.

REV. MR. CAUGHEY.—Mr. Caughey is labouring in Montreal, in connection with the Wesleyan Methodists. His preaching has been very much to Christians with the view of raising them to a higher spiritual state.

Great responsibility rests on Christians at all times and especially in a time of religious awakening. As God employs human agency in carrying on his work, it is possible that great injury may be done to the cause of religion by injudicious and improper dealing with inquirers. The Gospel should be freely, fully, and lovingly proclaimed. Christ as the atoning Saviour—Christ as the great manifestation of Divine love to sinners should be preached; and sinners should be called on to enter in peace and purity by simple faith in Christ.

MONTREAL ANNIVERSARIES.—These important meetings were held in Great St. James' Street Wesleyan Church on the last week of January.
