FULL LENGTH
 ILLUMINATED PORTRAIT OF
 SIR JOHN A. MACDONALD, G.C.B.,
With the robes and insignia pertaining to his new title (copyrighted).

ISSUED AS A CHRISTMAS SUPPLEMENT TO "GRIP."

"GRIP'S" Tribute to Canada's Great Premier has been a tremendous success. One edition after another of "Grip" has had to be issued to supply the demand, and a new edition of the portrait is just issuing from the press.

THIS IS NOT A CARICATURE,
 But a correct and pleasing portrait of the Right Hon. gentleman. It is printed in such colors as give a representation of Sir John's appearance when in full official robes. The work has been lithographed, and proofs sent to some of Sir John's most intimate personal and political friends, who speak in the highest terms of it.

PRICES—Size 12 x 18, 15 cents; size 18 x 24, 25 cents. To be had of all newsdealers, or mailed prepaid on receipt of price. Agents wanted everywhere.

Grip Printing and Publishing Co., Toronto.

AGENTS WANTED everywhere, to handle something entirely new. Easily carried; easily sold; profits large. Teachers during their spare moments make enough money to pay all their expenses.
 Circulars free. J. Z. HUSBAND & CO.,

THE CRITIC.

A Literary Weekly, Critical and Eclectic.

J. L. & J. B. GILDER, - EDITORS.

UNDER the general title of "Authors at Home," THE CRITIC has begun the publication of a series of personal and critical sketches of the best-known living American writers.
 Many hands will assist in the preparation of this series, and no one will be written of whose consent has not been obtained.
 Mr. Lowell will be treated of by Thomas Hughes—author of "Tom Brown's Schooldays," and one of the American Minister's most intimate friends. Mr. Whittier is written of by Mrs. Harriet Prescott Spofford, and Mr. Curtis by George Parsons Lathrop. Alice Wellington Rollins will tell how Mrs. Jackson ("H. H.") lives at Colorado Springs, and Roger Riordan has written of Mr. Burroughs at Esopus. Other sketches will be announced from time to time.
