A CLERGYMEN'S LIFE.

Has Mera Worries than the Public are Aways of-Nervous Exhaustion the Frequent Outcome.

There is more worry connected with the routine life of the average clergy-man than most people imagine. His duties are multiarious, and it is little the routine life of the average clergyman flam most people imagine. His tuties are multilarious, and it is little wonder that he frequently becomes the rictim of nervous exhaustion, insommin, etc. In this condition Dr.
Williams' Pink Pills act more speedily upon the nervous system than any other medicine, and promptly restore the user to a normal state of health.
Rev. Wm. Clarke, a rising young Methodist minister stationed at Orong, Ont., says:—"I have derived great benefit from the use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. I found that when I attempted to study I would become drowsy and rould not apply myself to my work. My digestion was very lad, and my nervous system seemed to be out of gear. At first I paid but little attention to the matter, but found myself growing worse. At this time, I was stationed at Fort Stowart, Ont., and was bearding at the home of a storekeeper, who advised me to try Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. I decided to so, and thanks to this medicine. I am again restored to good health. Under these circumstances I feel it my duty to say a good word for Dr. Williams' Pink Pills."

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills cure by going to the root of the disease. They renew and build up the blood, and strengthen the nerves, thus driving disease from the system. Avoid imitations by insisting that every hox you purabase is enclosed in a wrapping bearing the full trade mark. Dr.
Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People.
