

in the name of the Great Head of the Church, licensed Mr Cameron to preach the everlasting Gospel, and commended him in prayer to the Great King and Head of the Church. Mr Cameron having then received the right hand of fellowship from the members of Presbytery present, was shortly and suitably addressed by the Rev James Waddell on the sacredness of the office with which he had been invested, the nature of its duties, and how these ought to be discharged.

Directed the Clerk to inform the Home Mission Board of Mr Cameron's licensure to preach the Gospel, and to apply for him to be at the service of this Presbytery for three months—also to enquire of Mr Currie why he was not present at this meeting according to appointment.*

Read a report of Mr Grant's labours in Cape Breton. The report was received and approved, and ordered to be transmitted to the Home Mission Board.

* Have since learned that Mr Currie was prevented from being present on account of ill-health.
