-The International Committee of Young Men's Christian Associations at 40 East 23rd street, New York, has just issued the Association "Year-Book for 1888." There are now, according to this annual report, 1,240 associations in America, and 3,804 in the world. The American associations have a membership of 170,000; they own buildings valued at $5,609,-265, and have a total net property of $7,261,658; ast year they expended $1,181,338 in local work, and $104,949 in general work. 752 men are decoting their entire time to the local, State and international work as secretaries and assistants; there are 23 State committees that employ one or more travellag secretaries, and the International Committee's secretarial force numbers 77 of these associations are engaged specially in work among railway men; 10 among German-speaking young men; 273 are in colleges; 29 are colored and 18 Indian. 226 associations report educational classes in from one to fifteen branches of study; 287 report special attention to physical culture through gymnasiums and out-door sports; 398 Bible classes, 367 Bible training classes, and 661 weekly prayer-meetings are among the services for young men only, which are reported.

-In heathen conmines Protestants occupy 500 separate mission fields, containing 20,000 mission stations, supplied by 40,000 missionaries. In these 20,000 mission stations there are 500,000 Sabbath-school scholars, an average of 25 to each station. In the 20,000 Protestant mission stations there are 1,000,000 of native communicants, or an average of 50 to each station. There are also 2,000,000 of adherents who are friends of the evangelical faith and hearers of the gospel preached from the Bible, an average of 100 to each station. Including all classes, there are now identified with Protestant Christian missions 3,500,000 persons, served by 40,000 missionaries. The nationalities friendly to Protesttant Christianity, or nominally Christians, contain a population of about 150,000,000, or one-ninth of the whole population of the earth. covering 14,000,000 of square miles, or one-fourth of the whole geographical surface of the globe. The Greek and Roman Catholic churches cover 18,000,000 square miles in nations friendly to them or dominated by them, and have 250,000,000 of adherents. The Mohammedans have a following of about 200,000,000 nominally. Strictly pagan countries, therefore, have yet a population of one billion souls who are not reached by Mohammedan, Catholic, Greek or Protestant churches.

-Statistical tables in the Baptist Year-Book show the total number of members in the 31,891 Baptist churches to be 2,917,315, indicating a gain of 184,745 members during the year. The number of baptisms reported is 158,373, which is 2,995 more than were reported a year before.
