THE CAMP.

THE work in the Camp is progressing favorably. The wind storm on Monday caused some damage, but with the kind assistance of one of the Officers who, with some of his men, came to our assistance, all was speedily made right.
The following is our Assistant Secretary's report up to Wednesday evening:—

"We commenced our work on Sunday 22nd, by the Church Parade Service, conducted by the Chaplain, Rev. Major Stewart Jones. The singing was led by Mr. G. F. Pope, and twelve of our own young men. The heat was intense, and ten volunteers fell down unconscious, but were quickly removed into the tent, and water being applied, they speedily recovered.

"At 11 a.m. we held another meeting inside the tent, at which Mr. Gay and Mr. Sims spoke, and 2 soldiers testified.
There were 45 present, including 3 officers. Between that meeting and 3 o'clock Mr. Gay and I went round the tents and distributed papers and tracts, visiting every tent in the Camp.

"At 3.30 p.m. we commenced our next meeting. Revs. Jones and McCosh gave addresses. 78 present, including 8 officers. In the evening we had another meeting, at which there were 119 present, including 4 officers. Six men and two officers testified.

"Had a meeting on Monday night.
85 present. 12 soldiers testified.

"On Tuesday we held our meeting as usual in the evening, at which there were 129 present, and two or three soldiers testified. Several officers were present.

"Up to 12 noon on Wednesday, there had been 223 letters written."

The eternal God is thy refuge, and underneath are the everlasting arms.—Deut. xxxiii. 27.
