PRACTICAL CHEMISTRY

The Board of Arts and Manufactures intend opening classes on or about the 10 December next, under the tuition of Dr. BAKER EDWARDS, for the purpose of teaching Practical Chemistry. The classes will be held in the evenings only, and will meet in Toupain's Building, corner of McGill and Notre Dame Streets.

Instructions will be given in the English and French Languages.

Members of the Mechanics' Library, Art Association, and the Institut des Arts et Métiers will be admitted free; all others will pay a fee of 50c for the season.

All who propose joining must send in their names on or before the 1st December. For further information, apply to Mr. A. C. HUTCHISON, Mechanics' Institute, Dr. EDWARDS, or to the undersigned.
