Mercantile Summary.

A DISPATCH from St. Louis announces the arrest of Mellor, the absconding jeweller of Montreal.TWENTY THOUSAND boxes of the smoked herrings are being put up at Clementsport N.S., for various markets.SHIPMENTS of coal from the Pictou coal district for the season have reached 110,235 tons.
The demand is approaching with the advance of the season,A CARGO of deals, which is said to be the first ever shipped from Halifax, cleared for Havre on the 30th ult. They were carried over the Windsor Railway from the Eller-shausen Mills.TEN thousand dollars worth of dry fish were shipped to Cuba by Messrs. John Taylor & Co., of Halifax, on the 29th of August. Purchases of fish on Newfoundland account still continue, and the markets are advancing.THE directors of the Port Hope Gas Company have reduced their prices to $3.75 per thousand feet, if paid before the middle of each month, and if not regularly paid the prices will be $4.50.
The former prices were $4 for prompt payment, and $6 when overdue.ALL confidence between man and man has not yet departed from the earth. A labourer at Dartmouth requested a shopkeeper there to take his accumulated savings on interest, which the latter declined. Then he was asked to take the money for safe keeping, which he did, giving a receipt for the same, but the owner of the money, feeling more confidence in the shopkeeper than in himself, requested the former to hold the receipt for safe keeping.
