

- The CCG to maintain all necessary on-site equipment plus provide and maintain all necessary landlines.

Monitor and Control Station—St. Anthony

- The USCG to provide and retain ownership of all necessary on-site equipment to monitor the Loran-C signals and control chain operations.
- The USCG to provide and maintain the required landlines from Nantucket, and Caribou to the border crossing point en route to St. Anthony.
- The USCG and CCG to share equally the transoceanic cable costs from Angissoq to Canada.
- The CCG to maintain and operate all necessary on-site equipment.
- CCG to install, with USCG assistance, necessary equipment not yet on site.
- The CCG to provide and maintain the required landlines originating at Nantucket, Angissoq and Caribou from the Canadian border to St. Anthony, as well as the necessary landlines from Fox Harbour to St. Anthony, and Cape Race to St. Anthony.

Transmitting Station—Nantucket

- The USCG to provide, operate and maintain all necessary on-site equipment to produce, receive, synchronize and monitor the Loran-C signals.
- The USCG to replace existing AN/FPN-42 transmitters with a transmitter(s) of improved power output capability as soon as is practical to improve signal coverage in the tail of the Bank area off southeast Newfoundland.

Transmitting Station—Caribou

- The USCG to provide, operate and maintain all necessary on-site equipment to produce, receive, synchronize and monitor the Loran-C signals.
- The USCG to replace existing AN/FPN-42 transmitters with a transmitter(s) of improved power output capability as soon as is practical to improve signal coverage in the tail of the Bank area off southeast Newfoundland.

Transmitting Station—Angissoq

- The USCG to provide and make provisions to operate and maintain all necessary on-site equipment to produce, receive, synchronize and monitor the Loran-C signals.