

AFFIRM

in light of this renewed interest in multilateralism, the need to have the voice of the Francophonie heard in the major international debates, and to contribute to respect for cultural, linguistic, historical, economic and social diversity as a factor enriching humanity, that the Francophonie is a space for discussion, co-operation and partnership, with the greatest respect for its diversity. Its unity is based on a community of values and language devoted to promoting peace, justice, security, community, democracy and respect for human rights and fundamental freedoms, which are universal and inalienable, the courageous efforts of many countries of the South seeking to put in place a fair economic system that releases energies and promotes initiatives,

POINT OUT

SUPPORT

CALL ON

the international community to provide greater support for the efforts of the countries of the South, by facilitating establishment of a suitable economic framework,

SUPPORT

the regional integration process, which is a response to the limited size of national markets,

UNDERTAKE

to increase our co-operative action in the areas of intervention defined by the Summits,

RESOLVE

to strengthen Francophone co-operation at the international level,

CONDEMN

terrorism in all its forms,

PROCLAIM

our determination to combat all forms of discrimination, exclusion and intolerance based on such factors as race, gender, language and religion,

DECLARE

our determination to pursue the establishment of the constitutional state and to support the democratic development of political and civil society, both of which are essential to sustainable development.
