The Hong Kong-Canada Business Association (HKCBA)

The Hong Kong-Canada Business Association was formed in 1984 to encourage and promote trade and investment between Canada and Hong Kong across a broad range of industries and events. The central objective of the Association is to bring together interested parties to promote and facilitate trade between Canada, the Hong Kong region and China. Distinguished as the largest bilateral trade association in Canada, the HKCBA has over 3000 members, with 10 HKCBA sections across the country.

The HKCBA maintains close ties with the Hong Kong Economic and Trade Office, the Hong Kong Trade Development Council, the Hong Kong Tourist Association, the Canadian Chamber of Commerce in Hong Kong, the Consulate General of Canada in Hong Kong, and DFAIT.
