That the House do now proceed to another order, namely, notice of motion No. 49 standing in the name of the hon. member for Northwest Territories which motion relates to the establishment of a special committee to investigate all aspects of the question of aboriginal rights.

Mr. Deputy Speaker: All those in favour of the motion will please say yea.

Some hon. Members: Yea.

Mr. Deputy Speaker: All those opposed to the motion will please say nay.

Some hon. Members: Nay.

Mr. Deputy Speaker: In my opinion the nays have it.

And five members having risen:

Mr. Deputy Speaker: Call in the members.

The House divided on the motion (Mr. Howard) which was agreed to on the following division:

Mr. Deputy Speaker: I declare the motion carried.

Mr. Stanfield: Mr. Speaker, may I ask the Prime Minister (Mr. Trudeau) if that was a vote of confidence?

Mr. Guay (St. Boniface): Mr. Speaker, I rise on a point of order. First of all, I am very disappointed that the hon. member for Hamilton-Wentworth (Mr. O'Sullivan) voted against his own notice of motion.

Some hon. Members: Order.

Mr. Bell: You cannot reflect on a vote.

Mr. Guay (St. Boniface): Mr. Speaker, my point of order is that at four o'clock the whip of the loyal opposition rose and suggested, through Your Honour, that we proceed with notice of motion No. 9 earmarked for the hon. member for Hamilton-Wentworth. The Chair asked for the unanimous consent of the House to proceed with same.

An hon. Member: Why are you crying?

Mr. Guay (St. Boniface): Mr. Speaker, may I humbly suggest that we agreed unanimously to do so, and because of that I feel the motion of the hon. member was out of order and that the vote should not have been considered this afternoon.

Mr. Bell: Mr. Speaker, on a point of order—

Mr. Deputy Speaker: Motion No. 49—

Mr. Bell: On a point of order—

Mr. Deputy Speaker: Order. A point of order cannot arise from a point of order.

Mr. Bell: Then I rise on a question of privilege. I did wish to rise on a point of order, but I will rise on a question of privilege since I have been taken to task. There was no agreement on this subject, by the whips or by anyone, that we continue for the full hour. May I say that the parliamentary secretary has no right to reflect on the way in which any hon. member votes. The hon. member had the opportunity to make his speech, and he finished in the proper way. I think the parliamentary secretary should withdraw any reflection which he implied.

Some hon. Members: Hear, hear!
