

2.

I do hope this will enable you to adjust the matter with the members of your staff. We had no idea there would be such a rush for tickets; in fact, at the first of the week the demand for them was slow, but for the last two days they have been going out steadily.

With thanks for your very kind co-operation,

Yours faithfully,

Secretary to the Principal