

CHAPTER XX.

	PAGE
Gathering in Green River Valley. — Visitings and feastings of leaders. — Rough wassailing among the trappers. — Wild blades of the mountains. — Indian belles. — Potency of bright beads and red blankets. — Arrival of supplies. — Revelry and extravagance. — Mad wolves. — The lost Indian	215

CHAPTER XXI.

Schemes of Captain Bonneville. — The Great Salt Lake. — Expedition to explore it. — Preparations for a journey to the Bighorn	220
---	-----

CHAPTER XXII.

The Crow country. — A Crow paradise. — Habits of the Crows. — Anecdotes of Rose, the renegade white man — his fights with the Blackfeet — his elevation — his death. — Arapooish, the Crow chief — his eagle. — Adventure of Robert Campbell. — Honor among Crows	225
---	-----

CHAPTER XXIII.

Departure from Green River Valley. — Popo Agie — its course — the rivers into which it runs. — Scenery of the Bluffs. — The great Tar Spring. — Volcanic tracts in the Crow country. — Burning mountain of Powder River. — Sulphur springs. — Hidden fires. — Colter's Hell. — Wind River. — Campbell's party. — Fitzpatrick and his trappers. — Captain Stewart, an amateur traveller. — Nathaniel Wyeth — anecdotes of his expedition to the Far West. — Disaster of Campbell's party. — A union of bands. — The Bad Pass. — The rapids. — Departure of Fitzpatrick. — Embarkation of peltries. — Wyeth and his bull boat. — Adventures of Captain Bonneville in the Bighorn Mountains. — Adventures in the plain. — Traces of Indians. — Travelling pre-
