SEE HERE, MR. PRESIDENT. Sporting Editor World: McCaffery should have his both eyes open if he is on the lookout for good results for his ball team, also the Toronto Canadian League team. Why doesn't he get after young Clarence Sharpe, late of the Boston Red Sox, who played for the Toronto team in the Western League, and won for them the championship, pitching first and losing two games, each by the odd run.

Stratford are after this sturdy pitcher again this season. McCaffery has signed on players for both teams with less fame and ability than this fast-moving pitcher. This young, but sound, pitcher has a good record for the last two seasons. Anti-Fed.
