The TORONTO WORLD

wants each and every reader to own a set of their

$10,000 Prize Books

"HEART THROBS"

900
Pages
Size
5 1/2 x 8 in.

In response to an offer of $10,000 in prizes, more than 50,000 of the "plain people of America," as Lincoln loved to call them, sent to the publishers their favorite selections of poems, grave and gay; of song and story; of famous gems of history; of world-renowned orations; and of apothegms of wisdom. Out of this vast array of contributions, Senator Allison and Admiral Dewey chose 840 as entitled to the awards for the best selections. That these unique volumes contain treasures to be had nowhere else is self-evident. What appealed to 50,000 people as the greatest, the best, the brightest, the most pathetic, the most humorous, the wisest words of counsel or admonition, must appeal to the masses with the same heart-stirring influence. "Heart Throbs" is a book for every pack in your valise when you travel, to while away many weary hours of loneliness or waiting. It is a book to keep with you at home for comfort, consolation or cheer. In short, it is a book that will find its way into the homes of the millions as the only book, aside from their books of devotion, that they must have for their hours of pleasure, of relaxation, and of self-instruction.

TWO BEAUTIFUL BOOKS

SOLD DRINK TO TAXI
DRIVER, CLERK FINED

A clerk named Harry Richardson, employed at 71 West Queen street, was fined $100 and costs or three months in jail by Col. Denison in the police court yesterday for selling liquor without a license. Detectives Ward and Anderson stated that they witnessed the defendant serve gin to a taxi-cab driver and receive money in exchange.

They were positive the gin was gin, as they had tasted it. Liquor was found in the taxi-cab and the money was given for pork and beans and a glass of ginger beer, and called the cab-driver to support the contention, but the court refused to believe his story.

Crown Attorney Corby was of opinion that perjury had been committed by the witnesses for the defence, and that they should be proceeded against, but no action was taken.

VICTIMS OF ACCIDENTS SUE STREET RAILWAY CO.

Two damage claims against the Toronto Street Railway Company were heard in No. 3 division court yesterday before Judge Denison and jury. That of W. T. Flavell, who claimed unpaid damages for injuries received when he fell from a street car on East Queen street on July 5 last, was dismissed. The jury felt that he contributed to the accident by alighting from the car while it was in motion.

Charles Parrish claimed $500 for injuries sustained in a collision at Colborne and Church streets between a street car and a lorry he was driving. He stated he was crossing the tracks when the car approached at a dangerous rate of speed, and striking his lorry injured him to such extent that he has been unable to attend to his work. The railway company charge contributory negligence on the part of the plaintiff, and claim that the car was traveling at a low rate of speed. The case was adjourned until Monday morning.
