

It's Holiday Time!

Come For A Glorious Boat Trip

MAKE it a holiday of interest—of delight, a refreshing voyage through the Thousand Islands of the St. Lawrence.

It is like a beautiful dream—this trip through the Thousand Islands. The glint of sunlight filtering through the tree tops—the shimmering shadows of the shore-line reflected in the blue river water—the castle cottages of millionaires, each set on its own little island—the “tang” of pine-laden north-country air. The St. Lawrence River — wide as a lake in places, elsewhere narrowing down to a mere channel between islands—provides one of the most satisfying fresh water trips in the whole wide world.

“NIAGARA TO THE SEA”

But equally wonderful beauties await you farther down the St. Lawrence. Travel its broad expanse as far as Quebec. From there let us take you up the famous river Saguenay. Splendid accommodation all the way on the boats of the Canada Steamship Lines, Limited. And at Murray Bay and Tadousac the up-to-date “Canada Steamship Hotels”.

Are you interested in Shrines and miracles? A few miles from Quebec is St. Anne de Beaupré, where for 250 years the townsfolk and the pilgrims have bowed together before way-side altars—and in the great church of St. Anne itself—to do honor to the Saint in whose name so many miraculous cures have been effected.

This 1,000 mile journey affords you an opportunity of seeing the most picturesque part of America. And you will return from your holiday trip, refreshed and invigorated—satisfied too, that you have had the finest boat-trip holiday that you could conceive.
