MEMORIAL SERVICE FOR LATE SOLDIER

The Portsmouth Presbyterian Church Honors Memory of Allan Davidson.

MEN TOLD TO ENLIST

Bishop Bidwell of Kingston Utters Martial Call—Major Starr Promoted.

Special to The Toronto World.

KINGSTON, July 4.—At the Presbyterian Church, in the Village of Portsmouth, tonight, a memorial service was held for Allan (Scotty) Davidson, who was killed in the battle near La Bassee on June 15, and who was a former member of the Toronto hockey team. Many members of the 14th Regiment with which Davidson enlisted and members of different athletic associations were present. Rev. J. H. Dawson conducted the service, assisted by Prof. J. L. Morrison of Queens University.

Bishop Bidwell told the young men from the pulpit of St. George's Cathedral today that every able-bodied man who shirked military duty at such a time should be ashamed of himself. The bishop has one son in the Canadian expeditionary force.

Mrs. John Herrington, Napanee, has received a letter from her son Pte. Kelvin G. Herrington, saying he was wounded in the thigh and had his leg broken in the battle of Langemarcke.

Major G. L. Starr has been promoted to senior chaplain for Barriefield Camp. The militia department has decided to publish 50,000 copies of a small booklet called "Active Service," which the dean has produced. The booklet contains prayers for every day of the week and will be distributed among the men leaving for the war.

MISSING GIRL FOUND RESIDING IN GUELPH

Ran Away From Home in London and Found Situation in Linen Mills.

Special to The Toronto World.

GUELPH, Ont., July 4.—Wilma Berick Poyner, the pretty fifteen-year-old daughter of Mrs. F. Poyner, 402 Dundas street, London, who has been missing from home for over a week and who the London police thought had been lured to Buffalo, was found Saturday morning in this city.

She arrived in Guelph late on the night of June 22. She was provided with a ticket by a soldier who is thought to be one of the Guelph men with the 34th Battalion, and directed her where to stay. A few days after her arrival here she obtained work at the Dominion Linen Mills and has been working there since. Friday afternoon she decided to telephone to her mother that she was in Guelph, and to send her clothes here. When the constable ordered her to accompany him to the police station she made no objection. All that she would say was that she could not get along with her stepfather and did not intend to go back. He had, she claimed, abused her.

"He told me to get out," she said, "and out I got. If they send me back I'll run away again." The girl was sent home.

SOLDIER THANKS BOARD OF TRADE

Recipient of Gifts From Fellow Members While at the Front.

GIVES ENCOURAGEMENT

Says Comrades Deeply Appreciate Kindness of Toronto Business Men.

The following letter has been received by F. G. Morley of the Board of Trade, Toronto, from one of the members of the board now at Napier Barracks, Shorncliffe. The letter was written as a result of the decision of the Toronto Board of Trade members to forward to the members at the front magazines, tobacco and other comforts. It shows the appreciation which the men show for any little attention given them:

Napier Barracks, Shorncliffe.

F. G. Morley, Esq., Toronto.

My Dear Mr. Morley: Your very kind letter of June 3 and illustrated magazines were awaiting me when I got in tonight at 10.30. After enjoying your letter and glancing over magazines, I must do myself the pleasure of telling the board of trade that they are doing a far greater kindness, and may I add, "work" than they probably realize, and they have my sincerest thanks for their thoughtfulness.

This is no pleasure trip. Work has been hard and hours long; added to this, living within earshot of the cannon, seeing daily the hundreds of wounded and hearing from those who return wounded the terrible hell it is over there, almost too horrible to listen to, makes one at times feel the task before you so great that you would long to spell "duty" with the four letters, H-O-M-E.

This is the time that such acts as your board is doing gives the chaps the necessary encouragement and inspiration. You expect your relatives to remember you, but when the business men, the backbone of your city, not only remember you but give tangible proof of their keen interest in you and their eagerness to make things as comfortable as possible, that is what counts. We, with you, are proud of what the first division Canadians have done, and you would be prouder still if you could hear what the Englishmen have to say about them.

Another Bad Cutting.

We regret to hear they had another rather bad cutting Sunday last, but nothing very definite on it yet. Still all this only serves to whet the determination of those who are here. Both west and east have sent just as fine specimens as did Ontario, and when you see them all here, about 16,500 now out of the 19,000, you are not saying too much when you state that Canada can pride herself in sending as fine a lot of men as ever stepped in the uniform.

The sickening part is to look at this class of men and realize the number who will not see home again; this chance has been carefully weighed before we ever left home, and every man jack expects he will return, and it is the business men at home keeping the wheels turning that has made it possible for us to do our duty and make that duty easy. The men are doing fine work and are hard as nails. Personally I have never felt better in my life than I have since starting on this expedition.

Remember me kindly to the members of the board, and when the boxes reach me you will hear from me again; perhaps by then I will have more news. It will be a pleasure to write you occasionally and double the pleasure to hear from you.

Faithfully yours,

THEATRES

"VOLUNTEER ORGANIST," GRAND

It is only a few years ago that W. B. Gray's famous New England drama, "The Volunteer Organist," was the most talked-of play in the world. Its popularity was universal, for its theme appealed to all classes and its dramatic construction was considered a masterpiece. At the request of numerous patrons the Phillips-Shaw company will revive this wholesome play at the Grand Opera House this week, and have arranged to give it a production that will be the equal of any ever given in this city. Master George Branton, the boy soprano, has been engaged for the big church scene, when he will sing "The Psalms," accompanied by the volunteer organist.

CLEVER COMEDIANS AT HIPP.

The headline attraction at the Hippodrome this week will be two clever comedians, Martini and Maximilian, offering their amusing travesty of the "truly great" magicians of the stage. The Millard Brothers, billed as the special feature, are cyclonic cycling comedians. A charming, handsomely-gowned singing comedienne is "The American Girl," who is billed as the special extra attraction. Harry Leonard, monologist and comedian, has some new songs. Sonce and Renee are two pleasing feature dancers. The Four Musical Solis present their original musical melange, while Peterson, Dick and Morrison compose one of the best singing trios in vaudeville. Feature film attractions complete an excellent variety bill.

"THE FORTUNE HUNTER."

Tonight the Robins Players will present, at the Alexandra Theatre, by the special request of dozens of their patrons, another notable comedy success, "The Fortune Hunter." This play is one of the most delightful comedies that have been produced in recent years, and when first produced was used as a starring vehicle for John Barrymore. In the character of Nat. Duncan, Mr. Robins will have one of the greatest light comedy roles in which he has ever appeared. By a stroke of good fortune Mr. Robins has been able to engage Miss Frances McLeod, who has just closed a season on Broadway, to play Josie.

LOEW'S YONGE ST. THEATRE.

Ned Nestor and his nine sweethearts in a miniature musical comedy will be the feature attraction this week. Al. Fields & Co. in a new collection of laughs will be a sure cure for the blues. Other acts of equal importance are: Anna Kent in an original idea, showing life behind the scenes in song; Standard Bros., strong men, Ben Smith, blackface comedian, Henry Lydell, comedy eccentric dancer, Beth Challis, the juvenile star, concluding with the latest and greatest photo plays.

"WATERLOO" AT MADISON TO-NIGHT.

The Canadian actor, Farnum Barton and his company, will stage for the first time this evening at the Madison Theatre, Bloor and Bathurst streets, the celebrated Irving playlet "Waterloo" by Sir Arthur Conan Doyle. This will be the Madison's initial introduction of a straight dramatic offering as a portion of the regular picture bill and it will be presented in every detail exactly as given at the Princess Theatre during Easter week. The Toronto newspaper critics at that time hailed Mr. Barton as an actor of brilliant attainments and in "Waterloo" he has a vehicle in which his remarkable talents are seen to splendid advantage.

"THE BONNIE BRIER BUSH."

The Phillips-Shaw Company will revise the late J. H. Stoddart's greatest success "The Bonnie Brier Bush," at the Grand Opera House next week and a special scenic equipment has been secured for the production.
