Practical Talks

On Important Themes.

To Young Converts, Older Christians,
and the Unconverted.

BY

REV. H. T. CROSSLEY.

Cloth, $1.00, postpaid.

REV. WILLIAM WYE SMITH, one of the Editors of the Standard Dictionary, says: "Mr. Crossley's book will do what Doddridge's 'Rise and Progress' and James' 'Anxious Enquirer' did a generation ago; and in a more pointed, practical method and style than those. I have read every word of it; and I know it will be a classic in the great art of saving souls, and in building up believers for many years to come."

REV. B. F. AUSTIN, M.A., B.D., Principal of Alma College, writes: "Crossley's 'Practical Talks' is one of the best compends of practical and suggestive Christian truths I have seen. Next to the Bible there is no better book for a young Christian. It is clear, instructive, comprehensive, and all aglow with earnestness and love. It should be circulated by tens of thousands."

Personal Reminiscences

OF

CHARLES HADDON SPURGEON

BY

REV. WILLIAM WILLIAMS.

CLOTH, illustrated, $1.75.

REV. DR. POTTS, Secretary of Education, writes: "'Reminiscences of Spurgeon' is a book of rare value for all, but especially for ministers. I have seldom read a book which has been so stimulating. The brethren will laugh and cry over it, but there will be more smiles than tears, and probably more prayers than either."

The Methodist Times says: "The immortal Boswell has found a successor in Rev. William Williams, of Upton Chapel, Lambeth. Instead of Dr. Johnson, the hero in this case is the prince of preachers, Charles Haddon Spurgeon. Mr. Williams' 'Personal Reminiscences' of this great man of God will prove a welcome addition to the libraries of all those who knew Mr. Spurgeon, or are acquainted with his works."
