Articles not accompanied by their owners may be addressed to the Secretary, who will receive them on their being delivered on the grounds, if all cartage and other charges on the same have been prepsid.

Exhibitors on arriving with their articles, will apply at the office of the Secretary, when they will be informed where the articles are to be placed.

Exhibitors will at all times give the necessary personal attention to whatever they have on exhibition, and at the close take entire charge of the same.

Exhibitors of animals, machinery in motion, and other exhibits liable to occasion accidents, injury or damage to persons coming in contact with them, shall guard their exhibits and protect the public from coming in contact therewith, and every such exhibitor shall indemnify the Association from and against all claims and demands, costs, charges and expense which it may incur, suffer or be put to by reason of any accident, or of any person being injured or suffering damage through, or by reason of, any such exhibit not being properly guarded, or the public not being properly protected therefrom.

Articles placed on exhibition must not be removed until the close.

Every facility will be afforded for the transaction of business by taking orders, but no delivery of articles sold can be made on the premises during the Exhibition.

The Association will take reasonable precaution to ensure the safety of articles sent to the Exhibition, but the owners themselves must take the risk of exhibiting them, and should any article be accidentally injured, lost or stolen, the Association will give all the assistance in their power toward the recovery of the same, but will not make any payment for the value thereof.

At the close of the Exhibition exhibitors must remove their exhibits as early as possible. Any article or stand left in the buildings or grounds after this time will be at the risk of the owner.

Horses must be shown uncovered, and in such a manner as Judges may require or allow and if exhibitors refuse to submit to the proper requirements of the Judges, their animals will be ruled out, but exhibitors will have the privilege of showing their animals in harness, to bridle or under saddle, as they may prefer.

All animals competing for prizes must be brought out for the inspection of the judges or for exhibition whenever called out by the official appointed to attend to that duty.

Exhibitors who desire to take their animals home at night will be allowed to do so on depositing $5 with the Secretary as a guarantee for the return of the animal next morning. If the animal is not returned by 9 o'clock next morning, the amount deposited will be forfeited to the Association.

Exhibitors can ascertain from the superintendents of the several departments when the Judges may be expected to examine their animals or articles. No complaint or appeal based upon the statement that the Judges have overlooked animals or articles will therefore be considered by the Directors.
