

His son, Thomas Durnford, baptized at Andover, June 14, 1684, married, at Eppingham, May 16, 1719, Mary Lane, whose father, Elias Lane, died at Thornford, near Sherborn, aged 110 years, March 28, 1752.—Gentleman's Magazine. By this wife Thomas Durnford had a fortune of £3,000 and a small estate at Wick. She was buried at Ringwood, November 18, 1734. By this wife he had two sons. He was buried at Ringwood, December 21, 1737.

Elias Durnford, born at Ringwood 1720.

Andrew Durnford, born 1728, married Joanna Swaine, October 20, 1760. His son, Thomas Durnford, died at New Orleans, unmarried, and without leaving a will, May 23, 1826.

Elias Durnford, born November 1, 1715, married Martha Gannaway, at Rockbury, 1738. After the year 1744 he appears to have removed to Norwood, where he subsequently resided. He was buried at Streatham, May, 1774; his wife was buried at the same place, December, 1780. They had four sons—Elias, Thomas, Andrew, Clark.

Elias Durnford, their eldest son, born at Ringwood June 13, 1739.

Gentleman's Magazine, 1769, July,—Elias Durnford, Esq., appointed Lieutenant-Governor of West Florida.