THE NESTOR OF THE MAGAZINES.

"According to Homer, NESTOR, the old warrior and the wise counsellor of the Greeks, had ruled over three generations of men, and was wise as the immortal gods."

The North American Review

has been in the van of American thought for more than three-quarters of a century, ranking always with the best and most influential periodicals in the world. It is the mouthpiece of the men who know most about the great topics on which Americans require to be informed from month to month, its contributors being the leaders of thought and action in every field. Those who would take counsel of the highest knowledge on the affairs of the time and learn what is to be said regarding them by the recognized authorities on both sides, must read the NORTH AMERICAN REVIEW, the Nestor of the Magazines.
