

"No distance breaks the ties of blood,
Brothers are brothers evermore!"

Be charitable on good motives; consider yourselves God's Almoners, the Stewards of His bounty, whose ears are ever open to the tale of human woe, whose hands are ever full of blessings for the suppliant poor. Be merciful after thy power; if thou hast much, give plenteously—if thou hast little, do thy diligence gladly to give of that little: Let every man do according as he is disposed in his own heart, not grudgingly, or of necessity, for God loveth a cheerful giver.

Finally, Brethren, farewell. Be pitiful—be courteous—love as brethren—be at peace among yourselves—be charitable—be religious—be loyal—Love the Brotherhood—fear God—honour the Queen.

LAUS DEO.

PRAYER AFTER SERMON.

O God, the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, our only Saviour, the Prince of Peace, give us grace seriously to lay to heart the great danger we are in by our unhappy divisions; Take away all hatred and prejudice, and whatsoever else may hinder us from godly union and concord, that as there is but one Body and one Spirit, and one hope of our calling—one Lord, one Faith, one Baptism, one God, and Father of us all—so we may henceforth be all of one heart and one soul, united in one holy bond of Truth and Peace, of Faith and Charity, and may with one mind and one mouth glorify Thee, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.—Service for the Accession.
