THREE MILLIONS ADDED TO HAMILTON ASSESSMENT

New Act a Success and Revenue From Taxes Will Be $5600 More.

Hamilton, Nov. 10 .- (Special.) -As a ct is a success. The total assessment was raised from $29,700,000 to $32,500,000, and the court of revision, which completed its labors to-night, knocked off less than $200,000, so that next year's revenue from taxes will be about $5600 more than was obtained from taxes this year.

For Llewellyn Meredith, London, J. L. Counsell moved before Judge Snider for particulars of the allegations made by Hon. Dr. Montague agains, a horse that he had bought from the London man. Since the statement of claim alleged that the horse was not sound, had defective eyesignt and was lame, the judge held that sufficient particulars were given, and he dismissed Mr. Counsell's meeting Mr. Counsell's sell's motion. Mr. Counsell found fault because Mr. Meredith was referred to as a horse dealer. The price paid for the horse over which the dispute arose was $305.
