Missouri Pacific the Weak Issue at New York - Locals Tentatively Steady.

Bear argument was two-cent, rate legis-lation in Missouri, but wenkness of bull, succount probably encouraged traders to carry attack further than they had origin-ally intended.

Joseph says: A well sustained advance in Union Pacific would do much towards restoring confidence in the general market and thus revive buillish speculation. Steel preferred will sell ex-dividend to-day: there is nothing cheaper or better. Prospective favorable currency legislation will stimulate short covering. Jostleil, Shoots Four Men.

New York, Feb. 6.—A trainman named Jones and Rufus Ayres were killed to-day by Gabriel Ferrera, and Anthony Cenoty and Edward Tompkins were seriously wounded by the same man, following a scuffle in the yards of the New York Central Station. Ferrera, who is a laborer, recently left the employ of the railroad and returned to-day to secure $40, due him. He was jostled by the men in line and going home, secured a revolver. On being jostled again he fired four shots into the crowd. Those members of the board of trade interested in the forwarding of grain from the interior, say the question is still in the deadlock stage, no cars scarcely to be obtained from Fort William and other points of shipment. One of the buyers declares the following, from The Eric Railroad Magazine, breathes the true spirit of the situation:

"Who are you?" the devil asked, as a man rapped at the gate.

"Oh, I'm a railroad man," he said.

"Please open, I cannot wait."

"Why do you long to be within this place of groans and tears?"

The man's frame shook with anguish, and his ashen face showed fear. He said, "On earth I had no peace, my life was full of jars;
I lied to all the grain men because they wanted cars."

The devil said: "Go away, poor man, this is no place for you,
