Good Dividend Announcements and Encouraging Railway Earnings

Are Quiet, But Steady—C.P.R. and Montreal Gas—Notes and Consols of a Day.

World Office. Wednesday Evening, Dec. 26. The market was quiet today.

C.P.R. earnings for the third week of December, 1900, an increase of $100 over the same week of 1899.

Toronto Stock Exchange earnings for the week ended Dec. 22 were $31,000, an increase of $75.

Notes by Cable. Today is Boxing Day, and the London Stock Exchange is closed.

On Wall Street. The stock market went through some astonishing vicissitudes today, but its most amazing phase was the final recurrence of the moderate strength which has been in evidence since the 15th.

After opening with a sky rocket advance in prices, followed by a very free and lively market, the market gathered itself together again, and during the continued progress of the day, which continued in force at some points, it resumed its irregular but steady advance.

The market was not affected by the weakness of the London market, which was very generally wiped out, and the impression of the day was that the market had fallen from a fraction to a point below Saturday's closing level.

The Northern Pacific stocks had a large influence in the decline, as the speculation in Northern Pacific was the salient point of the market for days past.

A published statement that the price of sugar had advanced, and the fact that the closing list of January is the ground for the week, as it was the first time since the 15th that the market had advanced.

The market was not affected by the weakness of the London market, which was very generally wiped out, and the impression of the day was that the market had fallen from a fraction to a point below Saturday's closing level.

It Hangs On "Tiger Brand" Clothing

One cold no sooner coughs off before another comes. But it's the same old cough all the time. And it's the same old story, too. There is first the cold, then the cough, then pneumonia or consumption, with the long sickness and life trembling in the balance.

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral

loosens the grasp of your cough. The congestion of the throat and lungs is removed; all inflammation is subdued; the parts are put perfectly at rest, and the cough drops away.
