Baden-Powell's Most Hopeful Word is Not Reassuring for a Nation Sighing for Peace.

Fighting All the Way-Kruger

in Touch With Transvaal. New York, July 28 .- I. N. Ford cables The Tribune as follows: London, July 28, of misery and suffering for two fighting races, each with inexhaustible powers of endurance. The Boers are credited with a success in forcing Steinacker's Horse to evacuate Bremersdorp and fight its way to Lembobo, in Swaziland. This incident shows that the clearance of the eastern Transvaal has not been so effective as was supposed. The British operations been more successful than the official despatches have indicated, and four columns co-operated well in harassing the Boers. The Western Transvaal is tolerably quiet, and few incidents are report-APOLOGIZED TO THE CHAIRMAN ed from the Orange River Colony. THREW AWAY MEDALS. London, July 28 .- The drinking places in the Strand yesterday evening were filled with members of the Imperial Yeomanry, some of whom astonished their friends by throwing their war medals upon the floor and stamping upon them. These medals were given by King Edward to the Yeomanry yesterday morning. In explanation of their anger the Yeomen alleged Pro Bono Publico, while the other adopted that the government was in arrears with their pay and referred to the blunders "The other sensation was when Prof. Van of officials. One Yeoman said: "Our Schrotter, a representative from Austria, names are misspelled and our rank and described the Berlin Congress on Tubercucommand are wrong in six cases out of ten. We supposed the medals would be worth something to our friends and posterity, but mine is not worth anything but to chuck away."
