QUESTION OF NEW

Much interest has been awakened in the city in regard to the series of public meetings for the discussion of labor problems, to be held under the Jabor problems, to be held under the auspices of the London Trades and Labor Council. Rev. Dr. R. G. Peever of the First Methodist Church, one of the speakers at the first meeting of the series which takes place in the Y. M. C. A. Auditorium on Saturday night, says: discussion brings the issues out into the open and forces enlightenment. "The thouble with us is that we are afraid of one another and sus-picious of one another because we Arnott speaking along the lines of Child Welfare. He advocated pure milk for the babies of London. Without steps were taken to insure pure milk, all other steps taken would be futile, he said.

After the regular business had been transacted the remainder of the evening was spent in the form of a "pie social." This was enjoyed by the members. Miss Gladys McEvoy, soloist, and the Henderson Orchestra provided an excellent musical program.

On Tuesday afternoon the Bishop of Although Dad has been generally de-On Tuesday afternoon the Bishop of Ottawa addressed a meeting of the clergy of the Diocese of Huron. He laid great stress upon the need of supporting the efforts now being made to re-establish the returned soldiers in civil life, and upon the part which the clergy could play in creating an atmosphere of conciliation between employers and the employed. "We have before us a time of much unsettlement and the church must take its share of responsibility in the evolution of the new order," in short of the dads present were also grand-dads. At one table there were representatives from three generally described as the worried-looking individual who sits in an easy chair all evening with his head down deep in the newspaper, and with a briar or a corncob in his mouth, his true character was revealed at the father and son banquet held in Maitland Street Baptist Church last evening. In place of a frown he wore a broad, contagious smile. Not a few of the dads present were also grand-dads. At one table there were representatives from three generations of one family.
