THE VOICE OF THE PEOPLE.
The moral of the federal contest of yesterday, if it has an lesson, is that both parties must reorganize, must reconstruct, must reform.

The people have told Sir Wilfrid that they disapprove of extravagance, of scandal, of mal-administration in some departments and of inefficiency in others.

The people have told the Conservatives that they, too, must reconstruct, drop the men who have handicapped them, get a more progressive platform, before they will be entrusted with the management of public affairs. The younger element in the party have declared for men like Captain Wallace (Centre York), Major Sharpe (North Ontario), and Joseph Russell (East Toronto). The victory of ex-Mayor Stewart (West Hamilton) is remarkable because of his public ownership record when mayor of that city. Sir James Whitney's majority in the provincial fight has not been carried forward into the federal struggle. There is a moral somewhere in this—perhaps it relates to a recent excursion into jingoism. Perhaps also it is that a better exponent of public ownership than Mr. Hanna could have been found to stump the land and expound that doctrine. Adam Beck did more for Mr. Whitney than Mr. Hanna did for Mr. Borden. Sir James is a good public ownership man, but he must deliver the goods quickly by express, not slow freight.

Mr. Borden is a better and stronger man to-day than ever before. He has grown. But he has been hampered by an effort more or less marked for twelve years to maintain the Tupper tradition, a very ancient and decadent cult. He has been hampered by men who grew smaller and smaller, and more and more pycnane. The Plum Tree Club, as The Montreal Star called the land-seekers were a drag on his party. He has been hampered most of all by a dread to call a great federal convention to promulgate a platform in keeping with the ideals of younger Canada. An opposition should delight in holding conventions, in laying down advanced platforms.

He was also hampered by men in his party who were known enemies of the public ownership plank that he professed. The La Presse-Russell episode cost him more perhaps than he yet knows by the secret power that it gave Sir Wilfrid over certain of those who had claimed to be Mr. Borden's friends. This whole incident is a story yet to be told.

Sir Wilfrid has passed thru the fire and has come out unscathed. He is in power for another term. What will he do to get in line with public opinion? Will he discard any one, will he insist on more efficiency in the conduct of public business, will he drive out, will he scourge the men who have defiled the temple of state? The public have given him a new lease of power on the express stipulation that he clean his house, and fumigate his corridors.

The voice of the people is for sweeping reforms in both parties.

MACHINE GUNS FOR U.S. ARMY.
WASHINGTON, D.C., Oct. 26.—Capt. John Parker, after a year's investigation, has recommended a machine gun company for every infantry regiment in the United States army.

CHECK YOUR FAT
Hold it where it is, or take off some. You can do either without disturbing your meals or your ease or your digestive organs. You can do it without physical risk, mental effort or danger of a wrinkle. "Sounds well, but these are words only," you say. True, but there is a nation full of indorsees of these words, so your protest, while natural, is feeble. Prove it. Write to the Marmola Company, Detroit, Mich., enclosing 75 cents, or, better still, take that amount over to your druggist and get one of the extra large cases of Marmola Prescription Tablets. You will find it generously filled. Take one after meals and at bedtime, and within thirty days you should be losing a pound of fat a day, without disturbance, as we said, of either your meals, habits or organs. Fact is, these statements are not to be denied, for the tablets are an exact duplicate of the famous fat-reducing Marmola Prescription: One-half ounce Marmola, 3-4 ounce Fluid Extract Cascara Aromatic and 4-5 ounce Peppermint Water, which any druggist will tell you is the World's Fair medal winner in its class.
