Patrons at Ontario Race Tracks Have Too Sparse Accommodation

Horse racing has taken a wonderful hold on the people after four years of idle tracks. The game has certainly come back into its own. Fifty per cent more people are attending races today than in the past, but in spite of all the increase most of the tracks have made no effort to meet the demand of accommodation. Starting at the Woodbine with its great spring meeting and record breaking crowds they may have had some excuse after four years of racing, but they should have taken their cue and made some effort to meet the demand. Where the racing is needed, most is in the betting ring because ninety per cent of the people go to races to bet.

LACROSSE PROGRAM TOMORROW'S GAMES

Matlands and Shamrocks will clash at Cottingham Square tomorrow afternoon at 3:15. In the intermediate O.A.L.A. game, Shamrocks are on the bottom rung in their district, but Matlands are in second position and must win to keep within striking distance of "Dad" Brown's Mimics, who appear to be the team to beat, they have downed Matlands early in the season at Cottingham Square. As Matlands and Shamrocks have been battling all season over the question of players there is no love lost between the two, so that there should be plenty of lift to interest those who take the match.

Woodbridge at Weston, Intermediate. Shamrocks at Matlands, Intermediate. Cottingham Square, 3:15. Orangeville at Bradford, Intermediate. Matlands at the Beach is going to have the biggest attendance this season, judging by the respective supporters who are weighing the chances of victory for their favorites. The Shamrocks are known to their fans as the "Reds" and the Matlands as the "Blues" and the game is expected to be a close one. KILBANE DEFENDS TITLE

Cleveland, Ohio, July 29.—Johnny Kilbane, Cleveland, champion featherweight, won the reversionary decision over Art Rocco of Cleveland, in a ten-round boxing contest at American League Park last Saturday. There is still a possibility that they will be permitted to compete in the C.A.A. meet at Cuyahoga Falls next week. It now develops that just the day before the fight, the two men were unable to enter, it was due to a fault of the arena that they did not enter, and in view of this fact, the northern division officials may give them a chance to compete in the final meet.

DIDN'T COMPLETE

Ottawa, July 29.—Alto the Britannia crew did not paddle in the mile canoe race at the northern division meet last Saturday. There is still a possibility that they will be permitted to compete in the C.A.A. meet at Cuyahoga Falls next week. TORONTO PACER BURNS HOME WITH GREAT SPEED AT COLUMBUS

JUNO, WITH NAT RAY UP, WINS HOTEL PURSE AT COLUMBUS

Peter June Beats Peter Coley in Hotel Deshler Stake—Greatest Grand Circuit Day's Racing of the Week.

Columbus, Ohio, July 29.—What proved the greatest day's racing during the week, entertained a crowd of 7000 devotees of the Grand Circuit here this afternoon.

The first defeat of the year for Peter Coley, C. D. Valentine's stake trotter, was accomplished when E. F. Geers won the 2:08 trot, the Southern Hotel Purse of $3000 with Peter June, who trotted in 2:04.8, and back in 2:04.1 to take Peter Coley's measure. Valentine was making a great bid for the second heat when Coley broke in the stretch. However, he came back and took the final heat in 2:05.1. Bruloff was never a real contender, but he was the favorite in this race and sold at $200 on Peter Coley and $180 for the field. A 2:08 trot, the Southern Hotel Purse of $3000, was won by Peter June, who trotted in 2:04.8, and back in 2:04.1 to take Peter Coley's measure.

The other stake on the program was the 2:11 pace, The Hotel Deshler, purse $2000. June, with Nat Ray up, was in great form and defeated John Henry and Peter Look with ease. The heats were rather slow to the half, but June burned home at phenomenal speed, doing the last half in one minute in each of the first two heats. June was the favorite in the auction pool.

Walter Cox won his first race of the meeting when June the Great defeated the 2:15 class three-year-old trotters. Signal Peter won the first heat and scored lame the remaining heats. Juvenile House League, section of T.A.B.A. was won Wednesday evening by the East Toronto, 10 to 8. Pitcher Fairburn, who has pitched nine games, won 7 and lost 2, and is a star in his position.

Sixteen, seventeen, eighteen holes, and then back to the grateful shade, the lounge chairs, and the glass of sparkling, icy, O'Keefe's Dry Ginger Ale at the "Nineteenth Hole"—the club veranda.

Your "approach" to the eighteenth may have called for bottling up explosive language. But the cork comes out—the Ginger Ale—at the "Nineteenth" and the nectar flows deliciously, soothingly, in cooling draught.

Only O'Keefe's is O.K. for the occasion.

Other O.K. brands warranted to give a zest even to the game you lost, are—

Belfast Ginger Ale
Ginger Beer
Lemon Sour
Special Soda

Orangeade
Cream Soda
Sarsaparilla
Cola, etc., etc.
