N. R. WILLOUGHBY, President.

S. J. HUNTER, Secretary.
