THE PONTIAC SUNK

Halifax, May 4.—J. W. Carmichael & Co., New Glasgow, have a cablegram advising them that the steamer Pontiac was reported sunk. The captain and crew were saved. The Pontiac was last reported as sailing on Saturday from Port Said, and it is probable that she was sunk in the Mediterranean. She was built at Glasgow in 1903, was 2,072 tons net and 3,345 tons gross.

MARRIAGE CASE REVIVED

(Continued from page 1.) The superior court ratified the archbishop's decision, but later the judgment was reversed. The court of review then declared there was no question at issue which a court of law could adjudicate and the effect of this was to wipe out all legal proceedings up to that time.

CROWS WON.

CUNNINGHAM-WATERBURY.

Halifax Echo—At six o'clock last evening in St. George's church, the marriage of Miss Hilda Cunningham, eldest daughter of Rev. H. W. and Mrs. Cunningham, to John C. Waterbury took place. The bride wore a dainty gown of ivory-white silk with veil and orange blossoms and carried a shower bouquet of roses, while sweet peas and lilies of the valley. The bridesmaid, Miss Gladys Cunningham, carried a bouquet of carnations. Miss Claire Bannerman, the little flower girl, attended the bride and was gownned in white. The ceremony was performed by her uncle, A. H. Bannerman, of Dartmouth. The ceremony was performed by her father, only the immediate families of the contracting parties were present, the guests repairing to a supper in the rectory, which was given previous to the departure of Mr. and Mrs. Waterbury for a trip through New Brunswick. Upon their return they will reside in Edward street.

REPLICED IN KENNEDY

A young Scot recent had been placed on guard for the night outside the colonel's tent. In the morning the colonel stuck his head out. "Who are you?" he demanded, sternly. The young man turned and softly replied—"Pine's hood's yersel!"
