

PREMIER HEARD IN HOME TOWN

Says Angus McLean Urged
Development of Grand
Falls

Feels Government Majorities
Will be Greater Than
That of Rand.

BATHURST, Aug. 7.—Answering the charge made by Angus McLean that the cost of administration of the Workmen's Compensation Act had been too high last year, Premier Veniot tonight pointed out that between $8,000 and $10,000 of the cost of administering the act had been expenses incurred for suits that Mr. McLean had instituted against the province in his endeavor to show that the act was ultra vires of the Province of New Brunswick.

Premier Veniot in a vigorous address lasting an hour and a half answered the various charges lately laid against his administration by Angus McLean. He was the last of three speakers at a meeting held in the Opera House and presided over by W. G. Fenwick.

AUDIENCE OF 1,500.
A crowd estimated at 1,500 attended the meeting and the largest ever held in Bathurst. The first two speakers were Harold Ramsay and C. T. Richard. Mr. Richard spoke in French. All three discussed the political issues from the Government standpoint.

Premier Veniot in his address first referred to the attitude of Angus McLean in opposition to the Government. He declared that last winter in the by-election in Gloucester county, when hydro was a chief issue, Mr. McLean had been a ally in favor of hydro and had been a first to sign the nomination papers of Hon. Ivan C. Rand. "From that time until three weeks ago Mr. McLean constantly urged me to push the development at Grand Falls," declared the Premier.

PREMIER FIGURES.
The Premier also went into the cost of horsepower in the province of Quebec, reading telegrams received from the big power companies, which he stated showed that the figures given by Mr. McLean were not correct. The figures quoted by Mr. McLean, the Premier said, were only the price of horsepower at the switchboard, and did not include the transmission costs. The Workmen's Compensation Act was next discussed by the Premier, who took up Mr. McLean's argument that the $8,000 to $10,000 of that expenditure had been too high. He pointed out that $8,000 to $10,000 of that expenditure had been too high. He pointed out that $8,000 to $10,000 of that expenditure had been too high.

How Some Gloucester Electors Were Deprived Of Their Votes

Bathurst, N. B., 6th August, 1925.
AS A LARGE number of names of known supporters of the Opposition in Gloucester County had been omitted from the electoral lists by the Revisors, these people, living in the different parishes, have been making and sending affidavits of their right to have their names placed upon the lists as permitted by the Act. These affidavits had all been lodged with the Revisors of the several parishes, and the Revisors had sent them upon them and posted the names, as required by the Act, and had sent the affidavits with lists of the names, and requests to Mr. B. C. Mullins, the Secretary-Treasurer, to have these omitted names placed upon the lists, in manner permitted by the Act. One of our supporters came to me and stated that Mr. Mullins had said that the names could not be added because of alleged defects in the affidavits, which had been taken before Justices in different parts of the County. I immediately went to Mr. Mullins' office and asked to see the affidavits objected to, and Mr. Mullins produced some of them and showed them to me. In every affidavit shown to me, the Justice had filled in the jurat, and signed upon them and sent in the names to him, and in some cases the affidavits seemed to have been filled in the hand writing of the electors themselves, but they were not signed as affidavits usually are. I pointed out to Mr. Mullins that as the Revisors had considered these affidavits sufficient and had acted upon them and sent in the names to him to be added, he had nothing to do with the sufficiency of the affidavits, and showed to me affidavits to be read. Mr. Mullins replied that he was guided by Mr. N. A. Landry, K. C., Clerk of the Peace, and Mr. Landry was then called into the office and said that he objected to the affidavits, notwithstanding that they had been acted on by the Revisors. As I felt that a grave injustice was being done to these electors, I immediately returned to my office and wrote the following letter to Mr. Mullins.

"Bathurst, N. B., 8th Aug. 1925.
"B. C. Mullins, Esq.,
Secretary-Treasurer,
Gloucester.
Dear Sir:—

Since the discussion I had with you with reference to your refusal to add names to the voters' lists on request of the revisors, on the ground that the affidavits were not signed as affidavits usually are, I have given the Act considerable study, and am satisfied that your refusal is not justified by the Act. Permit me to call your attention to section 3 of the Act, which clearly provides that the persons therein named shall be entitled to vote, then follows the provisions for putting them on lists. In the usual way these lists are prepared, as provided for in section 22, sub-section (1) at page 18. This has been amended by Act 1920 Cap 49 (to be found attached to the copy of Act you have, and which we were reading at our interview). This is clearly an addition to Sec. 22, as it was apparently deemed just and advisable to provide that affidavits made for adding names which had been omitted, therefore, this must be read in connection with Sec. 22 (1), which clearly throws the responsibility of these additions on the revisors, and so clearly is this the case, that sub-section (3) of section 22 provides the heavy penalty of $300 for anyone tampering with their work. Again, if you will follow out the spirit of the Act, section 25 provides for severe penalties for neglect of duty by the revisors, and section 26 goes even further and provides that in case of neglect, you yourself shall make up lists, and I would like you to particularly note the first three lines at the top of page 31, which clearly intimates that in case of doubt the names shall be added rather than omitted. I think after careful perusal of the

Messengers of Peace

"Millions Now Living Will Never Die!"

How beautiful upon the mountains are the feet of Him that bringeth good tidings; that publisheth peace; that bringeth good tidings of good; that publisheth salvation; that saith unto Zion, Thy God reigneth.

Isaiah 52:7

Blessed is he that considereth the poor; the Lord will deliver him in time of trouble. The Lord will preserve him, and keep him alive; and he shall be blessed upon the earth; and thou wilt not deliver him unto the will of his enemies.

Psalm 41:1, 2.

In the midst of the din and turmoil of crashing nations, and whilst storms of human passion are sweeping the earth; When all that we have pinned our faith to of modern institutions is being shaken and destroyed in the maelstrom of trouble and distress now engulfing the world, the prince of peace returns with "Good tidings of great joy which shall be unto all people."
