

Two Good Hockey Games At The Arena Last Night

GORMAN CLIPS JEWTRAW'S WINGS

Takes Half-mile from Him
by Inches—Garnet Shows
Up Well in Preliminaries —Lake Placid Star Still Leads Series.

Charles Jewtraw's winning streak was broken yesterday at Plattsburgh, when he was defeated in both the half-mile and three-mile races, taking second place, however, in each and making the highest point score of the day. Charles Gorman of St. John won the half-mile by a great burst of speed in the final twenty yards. Neither Gorman nor Frank Garnett were entered for the three-mile event, which was won by Richard Donovan of the Endicott-Johnson team, who also took third place in the half. Frank Garnett skated second to Jewtraw in the preliminary and semi-final heats of the half-mile, but failed to place in the final.

William Smith of Montreal won the junior 220 and came second in the junior mile. Harold Bloomfield of Montreal came second in the 220. Jewtraw now holds the commanding total of 830 points in the Adirondack Golden Cup contest. His nearest rival is Richard Donovan, with 110 points. Charles Gorman, of St. John, N. B., is third in the point column with 100 points. Pat Corcoran, of the Endicott-Johnson American Legion, and Valentine Bialas, of Lake Placid, are tied for fourth place with 60 points. The third member of the Endicott-Johnson team is sixth with 20 points, seventh place in a four-cornered tie between Edward Cloutier and Emory Stephenson, of Toronto, Frank Garnett, of St. John, N. B., and Paul Forsam, of the Iceland team, of New York.

In the half-mile championship the Lake Placid star was leading with but twenty yards to go when he stumbled and lost his stride for an instant. Gorman less than a half foot away shot through the opening and landed the money by an eyelash with Jewtraw second and Donovan third.

The time of 1:20 3/4 seconds was excellent. Half-mile senior semi-final—First heat: First, Charles Jewtraw, Lake Placid; second, Frank Garnett, St. John; third, Edward Corcoran, Johnson City. Time, 1:20 1/4.

Second heat: First, Charles Gorman, St. John; second, V. Bialas, Lake Placid; third, Richard Donovan, Johnson City. Time, 1:20 3/4.

Half-mile senior, final—First, Gorman; second, Jewtraw; third, Donovan. Time, 1:20 3/4.

Three-mile senior—First, Richard Donovan, Johnson City; second, Charles Jewtraw, Lake Placid; third, Edward Corcoran, Johnson City. Time, 9 minutes 20 seconds.

220 yards junior, 16 years—Final: William Smith, Montreal; second, Harold Bloomfield, Montreal; third, Lewis Laurin, Malone. Time, 21 1/2 seconds.

One-mile junior, 16 years—First, R. Brookline, Syracuse; second, William Smith, Montreal; third, Howard Duggett, Plattsburgh.

Gyro Club Trims Veterans,
8 to 2, While Law School
Takes Measure of Y. M.
C. I. Team, 5 to 3.

Some good hockey was witnessed at the Arena last night. The Gyro Club won from the G. W. V. A. by a score of 8 to 2 and the Law School defeated the Y. M. C. I. by a score of 5 to 3. There was a fair number of spectators present. The War Vets and the Law School made their first appearance on the ice and played a first class brand of hockey. The Law School goalers showed up as the best yet in the City League and stopped a good many hard shots. In the first period of the Gyro-G. W. V. A. game, three tallies were made for the Gyros, two by L. MacGowan and one by Gilbert. In the second period each side scored two and in the third the Gyros registered three more. Lyle MacGowan was the heavy scorer of the game, having three goals to his credit.

In the second contest the work of Nicholson, in the nets for the Law School and Drumme, their centre, were the shining stars. Drumme netted the puck for four of the Law School's five goals. B. Mooney handled the whistle in this affair and W. L. Bonnell in the first.

The players used in the games were as follows:
Gyro—Gabriel, Melrose, Ryan, Gilbert, L. MacGowan, W. MacGowan, Agar, Schofield and Starr.
G. W. V. A.—Lahay, Mooney, Warren, MacKenzie, Winslow, Mountain, McKinnon, Laviole and Flemming.
Y. M. C. I.—Burke, McShane, Mooney, Kiley, Sullivan, Wright, Carleton, LeBlanc and Boudreau.

Law School—Nicholson, McGuire, Knowlton, Drumme, McLatchey, LeBlanc, Jonah, McInerney and Fitzgerald.

TENDLER WINS OVER MORAN

Low Tandler was awarded the judges' decision over Pal Moran at New York last evening in a slashing fifteen-round bout at Madison Square Garden. The first three rounds were about evenly divided.

Taking the aggressive in the fourth round, Tandler opened a terrific assault that soon had Moran in distress. The Philadelphia brawler battered his opponent about the ring in both the fourth and fifth rounds, opening cuts about Moran's mouth and nose, with ripping right and left hooks.

Moran came back strong, however, in the sixth round. After weathering a storm of blows to the head and body he swept Tandler almost off his feet with a furious two-fisted drive and opened a nasty cut over Lew's right eye with a jolting left.

Tandler missed several wild swings as both set a furious pace in the seventh round. Moran shook Lew with a left hook to the head in the eighth but toward the close of the round absorbed some terrific body punishment at the hands of the Philadelphia.

Moran carried the fight to his opponent in the ninth and jolted Tandler with a smashing right to the chin.

Both fought at a terrific clip in the tenth round, blood streaming from cuts on their faces as they battled toe to toe. Tandler drove Moran about the ring in the eleventh with ripping lefts and rights to the body but Moran rallied toward the close and opened a fresh cut over Tandler's left eye. They continued their fast pace in the twelfth, Moran shaking Tandler with several right swings after being jolted by the Philadelphia's southpaw punches.

Tandler had Moran hanging on in the thirteenth with a smashing attack to the body. The referee was forced to separate them when they failed to stop fighting at the end of the round.

Tandler administered terrific punishment to the southerner in the fourteenth, rocking him with terrific blows to the head. Moran fought back gamely under Tandler's punishing onslaught.

balance, which amounted to $106 on the judgment and $17.50 as sheriff's poundage. While he waited he was taken to Sheriff Nagle's private office. As the two big men stood together, the sheriff topped the pugilist by several inches, and in the exchange of compliments Sheriff Nagle remarked: "About forty years ago I used to whip a whole roomful of fellows like you."

"I wouldn't be surprised," said Johnson, laughing, and showing more than enough gold to settle the judgment against him.

The closing time of the sheriff's office and the expected rescuers had not appeared with the rest of the money needed to liquidate the judgment. Sheriff Nagle volunteered to lend Johnson the sorely needed $122.50. He only had to offer once.

The money was turned over to Deputy Sheriff Conlin, and Johnson, lighting a fresh cigar, turned his car and thoughts Broadwayward.
