

THE CHOICE KINGS COUNTY MUST MAKE IS CLEARLY DEFINED

Sussex, June 15.—Challenging production of one piece of constructive criticism by the opposition orators regarding the administration of the public affairs of this province by the Foster government during the last five trying years, Hon. Peter J. Veniot, minister of public works; J. D. McKenna, the government candidate in the Kings county by-election of Saturday, and Dr. D. H. McAlister laid that record of business-like achievement before a large audience that packed a way into the Opera House here this evening.

Amid great applause that swept the house from pit to gallery, the speakers not only defended most effectively the policies of the Foster administration, but they carried the war into the enemy's camp and made effectual and impressive comparisons of the record of the last two governments much to the credit of the present executive.

ONE STEP AND THEN ARREST

French Police Arrest Bertrand Just as He Puts Foot Across Border.

Geneva, May 25.—(Associated Press by mail).—A wealthy Frenchman, Bertrand, described as a deserter, has been arrested here at a moment when he had practically one foot on either side of the Swiss and French frontier lines, in a cafe that straddles the border. The cafe is in the village of Saint Julien, the international boundary. Part of the building is in Switzerland and part in France.

Early in the war Bertrand settled in Geneva, where, his accusers aver, he made a large fortune trading with Germany. He bought a villa and several automobiles and led a life of pleasure. He said he was more German than French, and took pleasure in speaking against France, particularly in the cafe at Saint Julien, where, safe on Swiss territory, in one of the drinking rooms, he could be overheard and even seen by the French police in the rooms on the French side. There the French listened to his annoying talk but, unable to catch him on the French side, they could not arrest him. Bertrand boasted that when there were no police about—he could enter France and return without a passport.

Bertrand, after dining well, crossed the border by going from the room on the Swiss side to that on the French to greet some friends. At the instant he passed the line into France he was pounced upon by two French gendarmes. He put up a fight, but was quickly subdued, handcuffed and carried away.

Every city in which I operate has received its full share and at these prices they will make clothing history. The fabrics are in endless variety of worsteds, tweeds, serges, vicunas and saxonys. All models.

REMEMBER—Robinson's Clothes are all wool with nothing used but pure linen pre-shrunk canvas, all wool linings and strictly hand tailoring. Every suit is made to give the service that the Robinson Label and the Robinson Guarantee in the pocket assures you of.

I have found it necessary to inaugurate this yearly FACTORY SURPLUS EVENT in order to keep my factories going full capacity the year around and keeping my overhead down, thereby retaining my regular factory help in the dull season. The overhead is an important factor in a large business such as mine and instead of shutting down my factories a few weeks between seasons, (as most clothing manufacturers do) with the large added volume of business that this sale will bring, I can continue throughout the year without a stop. By keeping my factories busy and the same help employed always, you will readily see that this plan will make Robinson's Clothes better and more uniform; and at a lower price than they can be produced elsewhere.

Commencing this week, this sale will become an annual event that will be watched for across the length and the breadth of Canada!
