

THE EVENING TIMES AND STAR, ST. JOHN, N. B., WEDNESDAY, JULY 12, 1922

SHAKE HANDS WITH AN OLD FRIEND

Joe McNamara, Here From Boston, Speaks of Sport
Matters.

Joseph McNamara, physical instructor at Curtis Hall, Boston, and formerly engaged in a similar capacity at the Y. M. C. I., arrived in the city last night. He is here to assist in the big aquatic carnival on Lily Lake next Saturday afternoon, and will officiate as a judge of the diving competition as well as chief clerk of the course. Mr. McNamara is well versed in this line of sport and already has imparted valuable information to local officials who are to take part in the big meet.

Prior to coming here Mr. McNamara conducted two big athletic meets in the U. S., on July 1 and 4 at one of which LeRoy Brown, captain of Dartmouth track team established a record of 6 feet 4 7/8 inches in a running high jump.

Speaking of the big sculling race at Philadelphia for the gold challenge cup in which Hilton Belyea participated, Mr. McNamara said that prominent sport writers in the U. S. gave Hilton full credit for his game fight and great showing made against Hoover and Castello. He said they took into consideration that Hoover had a big advantage over Belyea as the lakes at Duluth were free from ice and ideal for training purposes long before they were open here. They expressed the opinion that had the race been held later in the season there might have been a different story.

Asked regarding his son, who made a great name for himself as an all-around athlete at Princeton University, Mr. McNamara said he was now a member of the Pirates as an outfielder. He had participated in several games and had evidently given entire satisfaction.

This afternoon Mr. McNamara held a conference with other officials who are to assist in the big aquatic carnival. Entries for the various events are to close this afternoon and Frank White, who is arranging for the meet, said that a large number have already been received and from indications it should be a grand success.

Mr. White and Mr. McNamara met the Boston train at noon today and they thought that Joe Moore might arrive. They expect that he will reach the city on the late train tonight or tomorrow at noon.

Use the Want Ad. Way

Our Equipment and Service are giving every satisfaction.
M. N. POWERS & CO.
Undertaker and Embalmer
J. R. CLAYTON, Mgr
81 Princess Street

Notices of Births, Marriages and Deaths, 50 cents.

BIRTHS

LANG—At the Infirmary on July 12, 1922, to Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Lang, 80 Britain street, a son.

MARRIAGES

CHITTECK-NELSON—At the German street Baptist parsonage, by Rev. S. C. Poole, on June 29, 1922, George C. Chitwick to Alberta M. Nelson.

DINSMORE-HEAT—In St. James' church, Perth, Ont., on Wednesday evening, July 5th, by Rev. Darcy Clayton, Kenneth Dinsmore of St. Stephen, N. P., to Gladys Edith, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Heat, Perth.

DEATHS

McLAUGHLIN—In this city, on July 12, 1922, James N., youngest son of John F. and Elizabeth McLaughlin, leaving his parents, two brothers and two sisters to mourn.

CROOKSHANK—Suddenly, at Ram-ford, Me., on Sunday, July 9, John Richard Partlow Crookshank, eldest son of the late T. O. and Elizabeth Crookshank, leaving one brother and two sisters to mourn.

(Frederick papers please copy.)
Funeral, Thursday, July 13, from Clayton's undertaking rooms, 81 Princess street, at 2.30 p.m.

IN MEMORIAM

VAIL—In sad but loving memory of Mrs. W. H. Vail, who departed this life July 12th, 1921.
"Until the day breaks and the shadows flee away."
HUSBAND AND SONS.

HUNT—In loving memory of our babies, Clara Gwendolyn and Robert Gordon Hunt, beloved babes of James and Clara Hunt, who were taken home to Jesus July 12th and November 27th, 1920.

Two years have gone, our hearts still sore,
As each day goes we miss them more,
Oh, how we wait the call to rest,
When we may clasp them to our breasts.

MOTHER, FATHER,
SISTERS AND BROTHERS.

SNAP
For Everybody

GOOD THINGS COMING TO THE THEATRES OF ST. JOHN CARPENTIER-LEWIS FIGHT AT IMPERIAL

To be Shown in Regular Programme Thursday, Friday and Saturday — London
Film.

To add to the extraordinary sporting interest of this week in St. John the Imperial Theatre has booked that remarkable film depicting in every detail the short but spectacular Carpentier-Lewis bout before the National Sporting Club of London. To make the picture doubly interesting the knockout blow and final moments are shown in the analytical slow-motion pictures. Since Jack Dempsey, the world champion, is in town this Friday, it will also add some interest to the English film to see him in the ring during the proceedings of the sensational fight. This single-reel sporting feature will be extra to the wonderfully fine bill headed by Owen Moore's sensational thriller, "Reported Missing."

IMPERIAL HAS A WONDERFUL FILM

To say that the audiences that have been greeting "Deception," the Paramount picture shown at the Imperial theatre, are pleased, would be stating a fact in its mildest form. They are amazed and delighted. The various scenes of this tremendous historic picture drama, as they were unfolded in quick succession, held the spectators spellbound by their majesty and dramatic power. The story which deals with Anne Boleyn's love for King Henry VIII of England, is tremendously appealing, while the investiture of the king on a scale of magnificence never hitherto witnessed in this city. These include the procession and coronation of Anne Boleyn in Westminster Abbey, the tournament, the water carnival on the Thames and the royal tennis playing. The picture will be concluded with today's exhibitions. Special prices.

CONCERT DANCE ORCHESTRA
GARDENS THURSDAY
This is just another reminder that the "Black and White Serenaders" are to be at the Gardens Thursday night. The dance floor and the balcony for spectators should be crowded.

SWIM CREDITORS ACCEPT PROPOSAL

(Special to Times)
Frederick, N. B., July 12.—The creditors of Henry Swin of Doaktown met on Tuesday afternoon at the office of H. G. Hoban, the trustee, here. A proposal for an extension and a payment on a basis of twenty-five per cent, each quarter, beginning December 31 next, was accepted. The creditors appointed Otto Hildebrand and Robert Bauman of Doaktown and E. C. Atkinson of Fredericton to act with the trustee and the committee for the assignee.

PERSONAL

LeRoy Casey, of the firm of Henry Casey and Sons, merchants of Victoria Beach, N. S., spent the week end visiting friends in the city.

Miss Helen Pickett, resident nurse at the Old People's Home, is spending a two weeks' vacation at Oak Point, the guest of her brother, George Pickett.

Mr. and Mrs. Guy Johnston and children of Portland, Me., spent Monday in St. John, returning home on Tuesday by way of Houlton and Presque Isle.

W. Jordan, who has been visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thos. P. Jordan, Loch Lomond, left on the Montreal train on Monday night, accompanied by his sister, Miss Alice Jordan, en route to Saskatoon, Sask., where Mr. Jordan holds an important position with the Massey Harris Co.

Rev. Neil MacLellan left yesterday on a vacation trip to Prince Edward Island.

Mrs. Edward Skillington, of Silver Falls, will leave on the Montreal train this evening to visit her daughter, Mrs. William Huxtable, at Pictou, Sask., and also her son, William J. Skillington, of Warner, Alberta.

Aubrey W. Ervin of Boston, is in the city visiting friends. Mr. Ervin was the victim of an accident on Mill street crossing four years ago, when he was run over by a train and had his left leg amputated.

Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Panjov of Sydney, N. S., arrived in the city today on the Montreal train. Mr. Panjov was a patient in the Royal Victoria Hospital, Montreal. While in the city they will visit their daughter, Mrs. S. E. Elkin.

Halifax Recorder: Dr. Mable Patterson is home from St. John on a visit to her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Alex. Patterson.

LATE SHIPPING

Quebec, July 11—Arr, str Harriet, Halifax.

Antwerp, July 9—Arr, str Afghanistan, Montreal.

Rotterdam, July 10—Arr, str West Hobart, Montreal.

Anderson and Lyett Win.

Wimbledon, July 12—J. O. Anderson of Australia, and Randolph Lyett of Great Britain, today won the men's doubles tennis championship here by defeating Gerald Patterson and Pat O'Hara Wood, both of Australia, in a hard fought five set match. The score was 3-6, 7-9, 6-4, 6-3, 11-8.

Ottawa, July 12—Extensive enquiries have failed to locate any serious damage in this district from the electrical storm which skirted the city to the southwest last night. Reports of a man being missed at Prescott are unfounded.

EXAMINATION FOR LICENSE AS SCALERS

(Special to Times)
Fredericton, N. B., July 12.—The first examination for New Brunswick scalers' licenses is taking place today. Those taking the examination are Philip McKinley of Chipman, employed by the Sayre and Holly Lumber Company; Alonzo Pearson of Dalhousie, employed by the Dalhousie Lumber Company; B. H. Pearson of Bass River, employed by Restigouche Boom Company; Isadore A. Cyr of St. Basile, employed by James Burgess of Grand Falls.

The examining board consists of A. T. Murchie, chief scaler of the government; R. A. McFadden, chief scaler of the N. B. Railway Company; and G. H. Prince, W. Hooper, Forest rangers holding certificates under the forest act of 1918 may receive a N. B. scalers' certificate upon application to the board of examiners.

Applicants must be over twenty-two years of age, British subjects, and shall have had over two years' experience scaling and measuring logs.

STRIKE SOLUTION PROGRAMME DRAWN UP

Chicago, July 12.—A programme for solution of the railroad shompen's strike was drawn up today by the United States railroad labor board, after conferences with leaders of the shompen and was submitted to representatives of the railway executives from four sections of the country at noon today.

WOODSTOCK PERSONALS.

(Woodstock Press)
Miss Carman of St. John, is visiting Mr. and Mrs. Charles Peabody, River Road.

Mrs. A. N. Vince is visiting friends in St. John.

Mrs. C. E. Sander left on Monday for The Lodge, Charlotte county, where she will be the guest of Miss Emma Henderson.

Mrs. Karl H. Coll and Miss Katharine Coll, Minto, are spending the week the guests of Hon. W. P. Jones and Mrs. Jones.

William C. Cramble of Boston, a native of Woodstock, is spending his holidays with friends in town.

Mrs. P. Montague of Newburg, left on Wednesday to visit her daughter, Mrs. Owens, in Boston.

Miss Helen McManus of New York city is spending this month with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. James S. McManus.

The Misses Marion and Ruth Currie, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Kilburn Currie, are spending their summer holidays in Fredericton, Hampton and St. John.

Mrs. J. S. Gray left on Saturday for Milltown, Maine, and River Beach, Maine, where she will spend a month with relatives and friends.

Mrs. Walter Hay left on Saturday to spend a month with her son William at Massena, Maine.

Mrs. Leslie Waters, of St. John, formerly of Woodstock, after spending several weeks here the guest of friends, left on Saturday for a couple of weeks' visit with friends in Carleton and Port Fairfield, and will return here again for a brief visit on her way to her home in St. John.

1,000 Crates of Berries.
Sackville Post:—Yesterday was a big day for the strawberry men of Sackville. Nearly a thousand crates were sent from this station, including a carload to the Boston market.

Will Study in Germany.
Dean Miner, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Miner of Amherst, will leave at the end of the week for Quebec. From that point he will spend a few months in France for Germany, where he expects to spend two years in studying music.

Amherst to Have Curfew.
Amherst is to get back to the curfew law. At the last meeting of the town council it was decided to sound the curfew at nine o'clock each evening and to give the police orders to enforce the law. Hitherto the curfew has been sounded at eight o'clock, but with no effect on the children.

FORCE GIRLS INTO ARMY?
London, July 12.—An Exchange Telegraph Belfast despatch says that twelve young women working in farmhouses have been conscripted by irregular troops in raids from Glenelagh Castle, giving a Londonderry report as authority. Other young women working at farm houses in the Glenelagh Castle district are said to have enlisted.

Dublin, July 11.—Train service was re-established this morning between Dublin, Wexford and Warrford.

SALT WATER.

The very best ship that ever I knew,
Ah-way O, to me O,
Was a big black trawler with a deep-sea crew—
Sing, my bullies, let the bulgine run.

There was one old devil with a broken nose,
Ah-way O, to me O,
He was four-score years, as I suppose,
Sing my bullies, let the bulgine run.

And the old devil (he was ninety at the most),
Ah-way O, to me O,
Boars, "Ay, warm as a lickie piece of codlin."
So sing, my bullies, let the bulgine run.

"For I soaked my sea-boots and my dunnage,
Ah-way O, to me O,
In the good salt water that the Lord don't freeze."
Oh, sing, my bullies, let the bulgine run.
—Alfred Noyes, in London Chronicle.

London, July 12.—According to a Reuters despatch from Simla, India, the government has made an official announcement correcting exaggerated reports regarding the number of prisoners taken in that country. The statement says that, excluding some Moplah convicts, the total number of prisoners taken were 5,515.

Ottawa, July 12.—Extensive enquiries have failed to locate any serious damage in this district from the electrical storm which skirted the city to the southwest last night. Reports of a man being missed at Prescott are unfounded.

APPOINTMENTS IN PROVINCE

Several in Various Counties
—Four New Vendors are Named.

(Special to Times)
Fredericton, July 12.—Resignations have been accepted as follows:—

Albion R. Foster, high sheriff of Carleton county; Hedley V. Moores of Woodstock, deputy sheriff.

Albert county—J. Willard Pilonore, trustee of Riverdale school district, re-appointed, term to expire on June 30, 1923.

Charlotte—Hugh E. Kilcup of Pocologan, chairman of revision for Leppaux, in place of Ernest A. Shaw, resigned; W. A. Hystop of St. Stephen, to be a justice of the peace.

After a few days here he will proceed to Fairbanks and Nome, Alaska, preparatory to taking off for the last leg of his attempted flight to Siberia. Prest attempted the flight last year but was compelled to abandon it when his plane met with an accident in a storm.

IS ON FLIGHT
TO SIBERIA
Dawson City, Y. T., July 12.—(Canadian Press)—C. O. Prest, a Nevada flier, reached here yesterday. He is the first man to fly to the Yukon from the south. He flew from Skaway, Alaska to Whitehorse, through White Pass and over the Chilkoot Range to Selkirk.

After a few days here he will proceed to Fairbanks and Nome, Alaska, preparatory to taking off for the last leg of his attempted flight to Siberia. Prest attempted the flight last year but was compelled to abandon it when his plane met with an accident in a storm.

IS ON FLIGHT
TO SIBERIA
Dawson City, Y. T., July 12.—(Canadian Press)—C. O. Prest, a Nevada flier, reached here yesterday. He is the first man to fly to the Yukon from the south. He flew from Skaway, Alaska to Whitehorse, through White Pass and over the Chilkoot Range to Selkirk.

After a few days here he will proceed to Fairbanks and Nome, Alaska, preparatory to taking off for the last leg of his attempted flight to Siberia. Prest attempted the flight last year but was compelled to abandon it when his plane met with an accident in a storm.

IS ON FLIGHT
TO SIBERIA
Dawson City, Y. T., July 12.—(Canadian Press)—C. O. Prest, a Nevada flier, reached here yesterday. He is the first man to fly to the Yukon from the south. He flew from Skaway, Alaska to Whitehorse, through White Pass and over the Chilkoot Range to Selkirk.

After a few days here he will proceed to Fairbanks and Nome, Alaska, preparatory to taking off for the last leg of his attempted flight to Siberia. Prest attempted the flight last year but was compelled to abandon it when his plane met with an accident in a storm.

IS ON FLIGHT
TO SIBERIA
Dawson City, Y. T., July 12.—(Canadian Press)—C. O. Prest, a Nevada flier, reached here yesterday. He is the first man to fly to the Yukon from the south. He flew from Skaway, Alaska to Whitehorse, through White Pass and over the Chilkoot Range to Selkirk.

After a few days here he will proceed to Fairbanks and Nome, Alaska, preparatory to taking off for the last leg of his attempted flight to Siberia. Prest attempted the flight last year but was compelled to abandon it when his plane met with an accident in a storm.

IS ON FLIGHT
TO SIBERIA
Dawson City, Y. T., July 12.—(Canadian Press)—C. O. Prest, a Nevada flier, reached here yesterday. He is the first man to fly to the Yukon from the south. He flew from Skaway, Alaska to Whitehorse, through White Pass and over the Chilkoot Range to Selkirk.

After a few days here he will proceed to Fairbanks and Nome, Alaska, preparatory to taking off for the last leg of his attempted flight to Siberia. Prest attempted the flight last year but was compelled to abandon it when his plane met with an accident in a storm.

IS ON FLIGHT
TO SIBERIA
Dawson City, Y. T., July 12.—(Canadian Press)—C. O. Prest, a Nevada flier, reached here yesterday. He is the first man to fly to the Yukon from the south. He flew from Skaway, Alaska to Whitehorse, through White Pass and over the Chilkoot Range to Selkirk.

After a few days here he will proceed to Fairbanks and Nome, Alaska, preparatory to taking off for the last leg of his attempted flight to Siberia. Prest attempted the flight last year but was compelled to abandon it when his plane met with an accident in a storm.

IS ON FLIGHT
TO SIBERIA
Dawson City, Y. T., July 12.—(Canadian Press)—C. O. Prest, a Nevada flier, reached here yesterday. He is the first man to fly to the Yukon from the south. He flew from Skaway, Alaska to Whitehorse, through White Pass and over the Chilkoot Range to Selkirk.

After a few days here he will proceed to Fairbanks and Nome, Alaska, preparatory to taking off for the last leg of his attempted flight to Siberia. Prest attempted the flight last year but was compelled to abandon it when his plane met with an accident in a storm.

IS ON FLIGHT
TO SIBERIA
Dawson City, Y. T., July 12.—(Canadian Press)—C. O. Prest, a Nevada flier, reached here yesterday. He is the first man to fly to the Yukon from the south. He flew from Skaway, Alaska to Whitehorse, through White Pass and over the Chilkoot Range to Selkirk.

After a few days here he will proceed to Fairbanks and Nome, Alaska, preparatory to taking off for the last leg of his attempted flight to Siberia. Prest attempted the flight last year but was compelled to abandon it when his plane met with an accident in a storm.

IS ON FLIGHT
TO SIBERIA
Dawson City, Y. T., July 12.—(Canadian Press)—C. O. Prest, a Nevada flier, reached here yesterday. He is the first man to fly to the Yukon from the south. He flew from Skaway, Alaska to Whitehorse, through White Pass and over the Chilkoot Range to Selkirk.

After a few days here he will proceed to Fairbanks and Nome, Alaska, preparatory to taking off for the last leg of his attempted flight to Siberia. Prest attempted the flight last year but was compelled to abandon it when his plane met with an accident in a storm.

IS ON FLIGHT
TO SIBERIA
Dawson City, Y. T., July 12.—(Canadian Press)—C. O. Prest, a Nevada flier, reached here yesterday. He is the first man to fly to the Yukon from the south. He flew from Skaway, Alaska to Whitehorse, through White Pass and over the Chilkoot Range to Selkirk.

After a few days here he will proceed to Fairbanks and Nome, Alaska, preparatory to taking off for the last leg of his attempted flight to Siberia. Prest attempted the flight last year but was compelled to abandon it when his plane met with an accident in a storm.

IS ON FLIGHT
TO SIBERIA
Dawson City, Y. T., July 12.—(Canadian Press)—C. O. Prest, a Nevada flier, reached here yesterday. He is the first man to fly to the Yukon from the south. He flew from Skaway, Alaska to Whitehorse, through White Pass and over the Chilkoot Range to Selkirk.

After a few days here he will proceed to Fairbanks and Nome, Alaska, preparatory to taking off for the last leg of his attempted flight to Siberia. Prest attempted the flight last year but was compelled to abandon it when his plane met with an accident in a storm.

IS ON FLIGHT
TO SIBERIA
Dawson City, Y. T., July 12.—(Canadian Press)—C. O. Prest, a Nevada flier, reached here yesterday. He is the first man to fly to the Yukon from the south. He flew from Skaway, Alaska to Whitehorse, through White Pass and over the Chilkoot Range to Selkirk.

After a few days here he will proceed to Fairbanks and Nome, Alaska, preparatory to taking off for the last leg of his attempted flight to Siberia. Prest attempted the flight last year but was compelled to abandon it when his plane met with an accident in a storm.

IS ON FLIGHT
TO SIBERIA
Dawson City, Y. T., July 12.—(Canadian Press)—C. O. Prest, a Nevada flier, reached here yesterday. He is the first man to fly to the Yukon from the south. He flew from Skaway, Alaska to Whitehorse, through White Pass and over the Chilkoot Range to Selkirk.

After a few days here he will proceed to Fairbanks and Nome, Alaska, preparatory to taking off for the last leg of his attempted flight to Siberia. Prest attempted the flight last year but was compelled to abandon it when his plane met with an accident in a storm.

IS ON FLIGHT
TO SIBERIA
Dawson City, Y. T., July 12.—(Canadian Press)—C. O. Prest, a Nevada flier, reached here yesterday. He is the first man to fly to the Yukon from the south. He flew from Skaway, Alaska to Whitehorse, through White Pass and over the Chilkoot Range to Selkirk.

After a few days here he will proceed to Fairbanks and Nome, Alaska, preparatory to taking off for the last leg of his attempted flight to Siberia. Prest attempted the flight last year but was compelled to abandon it when his plane met with an accident in a storm.

IS ON FLIGHT
TO SIBERIA
Dawson City, Y. T., July 12.—(Canadian Press)—C. O. Prest, a Nevada flier, reached here yesterday. He is the first man to fly to the Yukon from the south. He flew from Skaway, Alaska to Whitehorse, through White Pass and over the Chilkoot Range to Selkirk.

After a few days here he will proceed to Fairbanks and Nome, Alaska, preparatory to taking off for the last leg of his attempted flight to Siberia. Prest attempted the flight last year but was compelled to abandon it when his plane met with an accident in a storm.

IS ON FLIGHT
TO SIBERIA
Dawson City, Y. T., July 12.—(Canadian Press)—C. O. Prest, a Nevada flier, reached here yesterday. He is the first man to fly to the Yukon from the south. He flew from Skaway, Alaska to Whitehorse, through White Pass and over the Chilkoot Range to Selkirk.

After a few days here he will proceed to Fairbanks and Nome, Alaska, preparatory to taking off for the last leg of his attempted flight to Siberia. Prest attempted the flight last year but was compelled to abandon it when his plane met with an accident in a storm.

AGED WOMAN TAKEN ON FALSE PRETENCE CHARGE

Arraigned in Connection with
Sale of Pictures from St.
Joseph's Oratory.

Montreal, July 12.—Marie Louise Justus, sixty years of age, was arraigned before Judge Monet here yesterday on a charge of obtaining money under false pretences by the sale of holy pictures. It is alleged that she obtained them from St. Joseph's oratory, bearing inscriptions, and that she had sold them from door to door claiming to have been authorized by Brother Andre to do so, and declaring that purchasers would be prayed for specially by the Brother. It is also charged that she promised miracles to those who bought the pictures.

After a few days here he will proceed to Fairbanks and Nome, Alaska, preparatory to taking off for the last leg of his attempted flight to Siberia. Prest attempted the flight last year but was compelled to abandon it when his plane met with an accident in a storm.

IS ON FLIGHT
TO SIBERIA
Dawson City, Y. T., July 12.—(Canadian Press)—C. O. Prest, a Nevada flier, reached here yesterday. He is the first man to fly to the Yukon from the south. He flew from Skaway, Alaska to Whitehorse, through White Pass and over the Chilkoot Range to Selkirk.

After a few days here he will proceed to Fairbanks and Nome, Alaska, preparatory to taking off for the last leg of his attempted flight to Siberia. Prest attempted the flight last year but was compelled to abandon it when his plane met with an accident in a storm.

IS ON FLIGHT
TO SIBERIA
Dawson City, Y. T., July 12.—(Canadian Press)—C. O. Prest, a Nevada flier, reached here yesterday. He is the first man to fly to the Yukon from the south. He flew from Skaway, Alaska to Whitehorse, through White Pass and over the Chilkoot Range to Selkirk.

After a few days here he will proceed to Fairbanks and Nome, Alaska, preparatory to taking off for the last leg of his attempted flight to Siberia. Prest attempted the flight last year but was compelled to abandon it when his plane met with an accident in a storm.

IS ON FLIGHT
TO SIBERIA
Dawson City, Y. T., July 12.—(Canadian Press)—C. O. Prest, a Nevada flier, reached here yesterday. He is the first man to fly to the Yukon from the south. He flew from Skaway, Alaska to Whitehorse, through White Pass and over the Chilkoot Range to Selkirk.

After a few days here he will proceed to Fairbanks and Nome, Alaska, preparatory to taking off for the last leg of his attempted flight to Siberia. Prest attempted the flight last year but was compelled to abandon it when his plane met with an accident in a storm.

IS ON FLIGHT
TO SIBERIA
Dawson City, Y. T., July 12.—(Canadian Press)—C. O. Prest, a Nevada flier, reached here yesterday. He is the first man to fly to the Yukon from the south. He flew from Skaway, Alaska to Whitehorse, through White Pass and over the Chilkoot Range to Selkirk.

After a few days here he will proceed to Fairbanks and Nome, Alaska, preparatory to taking off for the last leg of his attempted flight to Siberia. Prest attempted the flight last year but was compelled to abandon it when his plane met with an accident in a storm.

IS ON FLIGHT
TO SIBERIA
Dawson City, Y. T., July 12.—(Canadian Press)—C. O. Prest, a Nevada flier, reached here yesterday. He is the first man to fly to the Yukon from the south. He flew from Skaway, Alaska to Whitehorse, through White Pass and over the Chilkoot Range to Selkirk.

After a few days here he will proceed to Fairbanks and Nome, Alaska, preparatory to taking off for the last leg of his attempted flight to Siberia. Prest attempted the flight last year but was compelled to abandon it when his plane met with an accident in a storm.

IS ON FLIGHT
TO SIBERIA
Dawson City, Y. T., July 12.—(Canadian Press)—C. O. Prest, a Nevada flier, reached here yesterday. He is the first man to fly to the Yukon from the south. He flew from Skaway, Alaska to Whitehorse, through White Pass and over the Chilkoot Range to Selkirk.

After a few days here he will proceed to Fairbanks and Nome, Alaska, preparatory to taking off for the last leg of his attempted flight to Siberia. Prest attempted the flight last year but was compelled to abandon it when his plane met with an accident in a storm.

IS ON FLIGHT
TO SIBERIA
Dawson City, Y. T., July 12.—(Canadian Press)—C. O. Prest, a Nevada flier, reached here yesterday. He is the first man to fly to the Yukon from the south. He flew from Skaway, Alaska to Whitehorse, through White Pass and over the Chilkoot Range to Selkirk.

After a few days here he will proceed to Fairbanks and Nome, Alaska, preparatory to taking off for the last leg of his attempted flight to Siberia. Prest attempted the flight last year but was compelled to abandon it when his plane met with an accident in a storm.

IS ON FLIGHT
TO SIBERIA
Dawson City, Y. T., July 12.—(Canadian Press)—C. O. Prest, a Nevada flier, reached here yesterday. He is the first man to fly to the Yukon from the south. He flew from Skaway, Alaska to Whitehorse, through White Pass and over the Chilkoot Range to Selkirk.

After a few days here he will proceed to Fairbanks and Nome, Alaska, preparatory to taking off for the last leg of his attempted flight to Siberia. Prest attempted the flight last year but was compelled to abandon it when his plane met with an accident in a storm.

IS ON FLIGHT
TO SIBERIA
Dawson City, Y. T., July 12.—(Canadian Press)—C. O. Prest, a Nevada flier, reached here yesterday. He is the first man to fly to the Yukon from the south. He flew from Skaway, Alaska to Whitehorse, through White Pass and over the Chilkoot Range to Selkirk.

After a few days here he will proceed to Fairbanks and Nome, Alaska, preparatory to taking off for the last leg of his attempted flight to Siberia. Prest attempted the flight last year but was compelled to abandon it when his plane met with an accident in a storm.

IS ON FLIGHT
TO SIBERIA
Dawson City, Y. T., July 12.—(Canadian Press)—C. O. Prest, a Nevada flier, reached here yesterday. He is the first man to fly to the Yukon from the south. He flew from Skaway, Alaska to Whitehorse, through White Pass and over the Chilkoot Range to Selkirk.

After a few days here he