BACK FROM CALIFORNIA

Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Storm of 11 Pine street, returned to the city on Saturday evening after an extended trip to California by way of the Southern States. While in California they visited their daughter, Mrs. Louis F. Mortimer, in Los Angeles. Among the cities visited were New Mexico and Kansas City, as well as other points of interest throughout. En route home they stopped off in against the seven boys, who have been stolen. Two were charged with stealing the plums, while the other five were charged with receiving stolen goods, knowing them to have been stolen. One nine-year-old hails from Ripples, and a fourteen-year-old appears for the fourther fourteen-year-old appears for the fourth time in court. One of the lads presented a good alibi, and was allowed to go with a warning. The two ringleaders were remanded until this afternoon. Fines of ten dollars each were imposed on the parents of the other two, who paid up. The remaining member of the party is to be sent to the children's home.

VER YSUDDEN DEATH.

The death occurred suddenly this morning of William Rankine, at the home of Thomas Latham, Prospect Point. Mr. Rankine had been in the employ of Murray & Gregory for twelve years and was at work yesterday. He died of obstruction of the bowel. Coroner Kenney viewed the body. Mr. Rankin leaves one brother, Robert Rankine, and one sister, Mrs. Thomas Ross of Westminster, Mass. The funeral will take place from the home of Thomas Latham, Prospect Point.

3.30 o'clock this afternoon in the Charlotte street United Baptist church, when Rev. J. H. Jenner, pastor of the church, united in marriage Miss Violet A. Meisner, of West St. John, and John J. Flood, also of West St. John, The bride, who entered the church on the arm of her brother, was gowned in white duchess satin with pearl trimmings and overskirt of georgette, and wore a bridal veil of orange blossoms. She carried a shower bouquet of bridal roses, The wedding march was beautifully rendered by Stanley Stout, organist of the church. After the ceremony, a dainty luncheon was served at the home of the bride's parents. The bride's travelling suit was of sand Sedan cloth, with hat kine, and one sister, Mrs. Thomas Ross of Westminster, Mass. The funeral will take place from the home of Thomas Latham, Prospect Point.

THEIR CHILD DEAD.

The many friends of Mr. and Mrs. C. O. Jackson will sympathize with them in the death of their son, Thomas Callaghan, this city, today. A sad feature is that Mrs. Jackson was called from her home in Nashua, N. H., owing to the death of her sister, Mrs. A. M. Downing, about two weeks ago. The deepest sympathy of a wide circle of friends is felt for the stricken parents. The burial will take place tomorrow afternoon at 2.30 from his grandparents. NORTH END PICNIC

The annual Sunday school picnic of St. Peter's and Holy Trinity parishes is being held today on St. Peter's grounds. The large baseball park has been converted into a regular pike with its numerous attractions combining prize wheels, black cats, spindles, fishing ponds, bean bags, refreshment booths, etc. A large and efficient committee were on hand this morning and had everything in readiness for this afternoon and evening. During the afternoon the City Cornet Band furnished a number of selections and this evening will render some of their choice concert numbers. Electric lights have been strung over the grounds and about the booths so as to provide illumination for the testifical carned as and so of Little River, when their daughter, Alice R. was united in marriage to George E. Howard, also of Little River. Rev. J. K. King, pastor of Zion church, performed the ceremony. over the grounds and about the booths so as to provide illumination for the H. M. S. CAMBRIAN
