JUVENILE REVUE
MAKES BIG HIT
AT OPERA HOUSE

Capacity Houses Enjoyed Presentation of "A Night in Kidland"—Other Vaudeville Numbers Make Big Hit—New Motion Picture Serial Both Interesting and Thrilling.

Mammy's Juvenile Revue scored a big hit in the Opera House last evening in a clever presentation of "A Night in Kidland." The auditorium was crowded at both performances and all greatly enjoyed the clever dancing and singing of the little ones. Another act on the programme which made a popular fill was that of Devore and Worth, who appeared in a snappy singing and comedy skit entitled "The Captain and the Sailor." Both members are good singers and their act is well staged. The colored sailor is responsible for the major portion of the fun and his amusing chatter kept the audience convulsed with laughter.

Merrile and Wing were well received in a pleasing piano and vocal offering.
They rendered several catchy and popular songs, which evoked appreciative applause.

Mons Herbert, "The Musical Chef," entertained with a great variety of instruments, and his numerous selections won for him well merited applause.
Solly Brilliant, a comedy black-face entertainer, won instant favor when he appeared with his trombone. He is a clever player and a "remarkable leader." His antics while directing the orchestra evoked prolonged laughter and applause.
The opening episode of "The Third Eye," was thrilling and gives promise of holding the interest of all.

Oland and Eileen Percy appear in the leading roles and they are supported by a strong cast. This performance will be repeated this afternoon and evening and again on Monday and should attract capacity houses.

ONE OF THE YEAR'S BIG PICTURES AT
LYRIC NEXT WEEK

To Carl Laemmle of the Universal Jewel productions goes the honor of being the first to present a really big picture this year. "The Virgin of Stan-boul" Mr. Laemmle found a remarkable vehicle. It is altogether a film of luxuriant, appealing and wonderful. "The Virgin of Stanboul" will be the attraction at the Lyric next week. Matinee at 2:30, with two evening performances at 7:15 and 8:45. Usual prices. This is a rare treat.

FINAL SHOWINGS OF INTOLERANCE

fith's wonder spectacle, "Intolerance," will be given at the Lyric today. Last tures. Matinee at two-thirty, one evening performance only, starting at seven-thirty.

COST OF EATING
ABOUT TO SLIDE

Yes—it's time. We've all read read poems on "where are those prices of yesterday" etc., but where are they?

A little feature that has surprised a great many St. John women is the price of the wonderful frosted spice cake, at the College Inn. Guess Um-m, and oh, so good. It's only 25 cents a pound.

The appearance of our College Inn would seem to suggest abundance and optimism, also, wafers of extreme delicacy served with each order. And nothing less than the genuine Purdy Ice Cream.

A visit will do you good. You'll be getting a pre-war smile, coming out.

street, opposite the Dufferin

GIRL, PLAYING WITH MATCHES,
LOST HER LIFE

(Sackville Post)
Friends and relatives in Sackville will regret to hear of a fatal accident that recently occurred in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank E. Wheaton, of Wolburne, Mass.

On Thursday last their nine-year-old daughter, Verna B. was playing with her dolls in an upper room of the house.
Suddenly the mother heard her scream and hastening to the stairway met the little girl coming down wrapped in flames.

The child, as she explained later, had been getting her dolls' dinner ready and had lit the fire in the grate.
In doing so she set fire to her clothing. The mother tried to beat at the flames, but was unable to do so, and the frantic child escaped through the open door into the street. Here she was caught and the fire started out, but the child was badly burned. She was immediately rushed to the hospital, where everything possible was done for her, but without avail. The funeral was held on Sunday last, the interment taking place in Woodstock cemetery, Wolburne.

The bereaved parents are both natives of Sackville, the mother being a daughter of Robert H. Ogden of Middle Sackville. The father is also well known here.

The shortest street on earth is the rue Papillon, in Paris, which runs from the rue Blue to the square Montholon, and has only four houses on each side.

At Fredericton, N. Y., the canning factories are short of tomatoes, and nearby farmers, whose big cherry orchards are solid masses of fruit, not knowing what to do with the cherries, are advertising for city folks to come to the farms and pick them at 4 cents a pound.

ST. JOHN'S GREATEST MERCANTILE EVENT
ALL NEXT WEEK

St. John's Greatest Mercantile Event, which is Oak Hall's annual Mid-Summer Sale, has handed unusually large crowds during the first two days and great crowds have been made on the streets; but this will in no way interfere with the continuing of this great event all next week as Oak Hall made preparations in a very big way, and each morning finds the various tables replenished with new, fresh merchandise, so that those who were unable to take advantage of this event during the past two days, need have no fears that the real opportunities have gone. There are just as many real bargains now as there were the first day, and will continue to be throughout every day of this Great

THE BREAD THAT IS ALMOST CAKE

Yesterday was the day that Moirs —the Halifax bakers and confection-ers were to ship a big order of their bread to Col. C. C. Lupton.

But it didn't arrive. Probably delayed in transit. However, the College Inn, 105 Charlotte street is expecting it today, and orders in advance have just about taken the entire lot.

Maybe, if you speak quick you'll get some. Regular local price—16 cents. Just opposite the Dufferin.

Alberta Recipe - Steak and Kidney Pie

REMEMBER those savory meat pies mother used to make? Flaky crust with delicious rich gravy and well cooked meat inside. Fairly melted in your mouth.

Bake one to-day with ALBERTA Flour for a palate treat your folks will long remember.

How to Make the Crust!

Take 4 ozs. butter, 2 ozs. lard, 8 ozs. flour.
Put together in a chopping bowl, with a pinch of salt, and (in a cool place) chop together till the bits of butter are about the size of beans. Make a hole in the centre, and using about half a cup of ICE water, make it, with as little pressure as possible, into a firm dough. Roll out half an inch thick, put into it any little bits of butter that have fallen from it, fold it in three, and roll out again, as quickly as possible. Dredge with a very little flour, fold again in three, roll out once more (three times in all), fold again in three, and set in the refrigerator for twenty-four hours, then use in the ordinary way.

IRISH LEGISLATION

LONDON, July 24.—In the House of Commons, Sir Hamar Greenwood, Chief Secretary for Ireland, announced that the government had introduced a bill which would enable it to to intercept every grant from the exchequer to any person or authority in Ireland which was acting illegally, and he assured the House that the action of every council or other public authority in Ireland was being examined into end that most drastic action would be taken to maintain the authority of the crown.
Discussing the statement that a bill would be put forward setting up a tribunal to supersede the civil courts, which had failed to function, the Daily Telegraph editorially insists that the government's measure must be proceeded with. It declares that any other course would merely be a return to ploughing the sands in which so vast an amount of political energy has been utterly wasted in the past.

The Daily Telegraph says that all along the government has regarded the revolt as a fire which would burn itself out. It must, the Graphic says, furnish a fatalistic mood and become a great deal bolder. It says there is no halfway between smashing conspiracy and surrendering to it.

The News describes the effect of the government policy as a failure of force.
It says that the almost certain effect of the proposed measures will be to goad the exasperated people into more de-spiteful resistance.
