CALLS BIG FIRMS "SLACKERS" Andrew Adie, head of the United States Worsted Company, and chairman of the worsted and woollen trades committee of the Liberty loan, is a strong exponent of "double up." During the last few days he has not only "doubled up" on his own subscription, but has urged every employee in his big concern to do the same, so that the total for the United States Worsted Company and its employees is now $1,250,000.

Mr. Adie in a statement to the press last night, laid the blame for the lagging loan on managers of big interests. "The biggest firms in Boston are to blot out all his past."

among the slackers," he said. "Lack of patriotism is very marked among some of these. I can't understand how some of these large concerns can make such petty subscriptions when it is a known fact that they could subscribe the whole of Boston's quota without inconvenience. They must wake up during the next four days and 'double up.' Only heavy subscriptions from big interests will save New England."

"Double up" has been urged strongly by Mr. Adie in his work on his committee. During the second loan drive he subscribed $1,000,000.

Many a man looks upon marriage as sort of a blither with which he expects to blot out all his past.
