Japanese Minister to Mexico, Wildly Greeted There, Said to Have Made Speech That Will Make Washington Sizzle

(Canadian Press) Mexico City, July 22.—The Japanese minister to Mexico, on his arrival here yesterday, was met by a crowd of 5,000 cheering Mexicans and the extraordinary cordiality of his reception brought out a speech which has aroused excited comment everywhere in the capital and which made Mr. O'Shaughnessy, charge d'affaires of the United States legation, promptly take steps to have it transmitted to Washington with his own deductions as to its purpose.

The Japanese minister, greeted with a chorus of "banzai" made an address in Japanese, translated into Spanish by one of his attaches, and then spoke to the crowd. This makes not at all certain the full purport of the diplomat's remarks, but it is estimated that he announced the existence of a strong bond of sympathy between Mexico and Japan on the score, it is declared, he said, of both countries being in the midst of difficulties with the United States.

Japan would be heart and soul with Mexico if there should come a clash between that nation and the United States. Diplomats here, however, aver that they can see no more significance in the Japanese minister's remarks than perhaps in the indifferent utterance brought on by the great warmth of the reception. Reports last night had it that the newspapers because of this speech of the Japanese representative, are preparing anti-American editorials, even more inflammatory than those of the immediate past.

ATTACK ON COMPTROLLER IN CITY HALL

"Bobby" Dickson Comes at Adam P. Macintyre With Knife; is Downed and Arrested—Fancied Grievance Over Land

A murderous attack upon City Comptroller, Adam P. Macintyre, in his office at City Hall this morning was so frustrated by Mr. Macintyre's presence of mind and activity. The attempt was made by Robert Dickson, well known around town, as a result of a fancied grudge against the comptroller. After a brief struggle the assailant was thrown to the floor and held there until the arrival of a policeman, when he was placed under arrest and locked up, charged with threatening to stab Mr. Macintyre. Dickson's trouble arises from an obsession he has regarding some property of his father who died possessed of a leasehold dwelling which he willed to the late George B. Vézina as trustee for his widow. The property was sold, and after the debts were paid, a small balance was handed to Mr. Dickson. The son made trouble about the matter at the time, saying that the money would have been paid to him. He made a demand upon Mr. Vincent for the same and then transferred his attack to Mr. Macintyre, who only connection with the case was that he acts as trustee for the land upon which the late Mr. Dickson's house was located.

when he reached his office he notified the chief of police of the occurrence and warned him that Dickson should be looked after. Hardly half an hour afterwards Mr. Macintyre looked up from his desk in his private office and saw Dickson coming down the doorway with a knife in his hand. He rushed to the door, ordered him out but Dickson continued his approach. Mr. Macintyre, without wasting any more time, jumped for the man and caught him by the arm to prevent him using the knife. He hustled him into the outer office where he threw him to the floor and held him while Dickson made frantic efforts with the knife in his hand. Edward Chase, who was in the office at the time, tried to take the knife but Dickson succeeded only in closing the blade over Dickson's fingers so as to make it harmless. James Steele, a city constable who entered the office at this time, was dispatched for a policeman and returned with Patrolman Alexander Crawford who arrested Dickson and took him to the Water street lock-up. While the prisoner was on the floor he continued his threats, promising to "get" the comptroller at some future time. Dickson was confined in the provincial hospital at one time but was released as harmless. When the prisoner was searched a small nickel-handled knife was found on him but the larger knife was missing, and it is thought it was dropped on his way to the lock-up.

NOW SAY THAT TURKEY COMES BACK TO FIGHT

Report That War Against Bulgaria is Decided on

(Canadian Press) London, July 22.—The Morning Post publishes a Constantinople telegram via Vienna asserting that, after a long ministerial council, it had been decided to declare war officially against Bulgaria. The Turkish army, according to this account, has been ordered not only to occupy Adrianople, but to cross the frontier as quickly as possible and to march into Bulgarian territory. According to apparently reliable telegrams from Belgrade, the Serbian government regards this as an attack on the whole Balkan league, and the cabinets at Belgrade, Athens and Cetinje are preparing to act accordingly.

It also alleges that the Turks and Greece today agreed to the proposal that peace negotiations with Bulgaria should take place in Bucharest. An armistice is being arranged in Nish and it is hoped that it will be concluded within a couple of days. Greece insists that the armistice and the agreement for peace negotiations be signed simultaneously. Rumania has refused Turkey's request that she be allowed to participate in the peace conference. The European powers have consented to these arrangements. Sofia, July 22.—It is reported here that the Russian government is massing the horrors at Adrianople, giving the fleeing population no quarter. CANCEL C. P. R. ORDER RE WOMEN WHO WEAR THE TIGHT SKIRTS

Understood That Decision is Those Who Dress a la Mode Must be Themselves Responsible—Still Every Courtesy, However

Evidently the C. P. R. do not intend to encourage the wearing of the hobble or other forms of tight-fitting skirt by female passengers on their trains, despite the fact, as the punster would put it, that they are probably the most suitable gown to take a "trip" in. Some days ago an order was issued to conductors and other members of train crews to be on the lookout for women passengers attired in tight garments and to assist them aboard trains. An instance was cited wherein a woman who was "hobbled" to a superfluous extent in trying to step aboard a train at a certain station along the line had fallen and might have fared seriously had not a trainman helped her to arise.

Cadets to go Into Camp This Year at Sussex; Expect 1,000 of Them

A change has been made in the regulations regarding the annual encampment of cadet corps for this year so far as the maritime provinces are concerned. Instead of going to Aldershot as was done last year by the boys from the three Atlantic provinces, the lads from New Brunswick will bivouac at Sussex, on the site of the big military encampment there. The experiment of having the Junior arms camp for ten days at Aldershot last year was much of a success but the distance and need of precautions in getting the young fellows in safety to the grounds, etc., were not appreciated by those in charge. This will be done away with this year. The camp is expected to be about 1,000 strong, and will be in charge of Colonel Mercereau. It will open on August 4, and will be conducted on the same plan as governs the regular military camps throughout the Dominion. Instruction will be given in several branches of the service. The members of the Canadian Ordnance Corps will leave in the latter part of this month for Sussex to prepare for the issuing of the arms to the young fellows going to camp from St. John and other parts of the province.

Owing to the prominence of those concerned, the whole affair has been kept dark, the matter being kept out of the hands of the city police, and the investigation carried out and the arrests made by private detectives. A late report states that no prosecution will be made, the families concerned having arranged for restitution.
