

The Evening Times Star

VOL. VII. No. 87

ST. JOHN, N. B., SATURDAY, JANUARY 13, 1912

TWELVE PAGES—ONE CENT

SENSATIONS IN FRENCH POLITICS

Ministerial Intrigues Are Reported Following Cabinet Downfall

Private Financial Schemes Fostered in the Negotiations With Germany is Statement in Newspaper

(Canadian Press)

Paris, Jan. 12.—Sensational revelations have followed the fall of Premier Caillaux. There is a general belief that the official documents and therefore presumably emanate from friends of the ex-minister, M. De Selves.

THRILLING STORY FROM MISSIONARY

Peril of 25 Members of Canadian Methodist Mission in China

(Canadian Press)

Montreal, Jan. 13.—The thrilling adventures of twenty-five Canadian Methodist missionaries in their flight through the heart of the Chinese rebellion is related in a cable to the Herald today from T. E. Plewman of the Canadian Missionary Printing Press at Chung Tu.

FLIGHT TO SAFETY

T. E. Plewman Sends Account of Adventures in Flight Through Heart of the Rebellion—Fired Upon But Escape

(Canadian Press)

Montreal, Jan. 13.—The thrilling adventures of twenty-five Canadian Methodist missionaries in their flight through the heart of the Chinese rebellion is related in a cable to the Herald today from T. E. Plewman of the Canadian Missionary Printing Press at Chung Tu.

AUTO THROUGH THE ICE, FIVE ARE DROWNED

Two Men and Three Women Lost in Water At Trenton, N. J.

Driver Lost Control of Motor Because of Cold in Zero Weather and Car Ran From Road Onto the Ice

(Canadian Press)

Trenton, N. J., Jan. 13.—Dashing through the darkness in zero weather, two men and three women were drowned early today when an automobile in which they were riding ran on the ice covering an artificial stream of water used by a power plant, outside the city.

SHOT HIMSELF BY ORDER OF MOTHER

Her Sorrow for Sons' Misdeeds Led Her to Order Him to Commit Suicide

(Canadian Press)

Budapest, Jan. 13.—The sorrow of a mother for the misdeeds of her son led her to order him to commit suicide. The son, Zoltan, 17, is alleged to have been concerned in bank frauds involving more than $50,000.

UPRISING IN CRETE

London, Jan. 13.—A despatch to the London Times from Crete states that the insurgents have converted to the cause of the Greek parliament. A short time ago serious trouble was caused by the Cretans who, in their desire for union with Greece, elected deputies to the Greek parliament.

CRAWFORD HOUSE OWNERS IN THE BANKRUPTCY COURT

One of Boston's Oldest Hotels in Financial Trouble — Employees Among Creditors

(Canadian Press)

Boston, Jan. 13.—Henry Goodwin and George H. Rimbach, conducting the Crawford House, Braintree and Court streets, one of the oldest hotels in the city, have confessed bankruptcy, attorneys Alfred S. Hayes and Alvah G. Sleeper filing a petition at the United States District Court on their behalf.

PROMINENT ODDFELLOW DEAD

Portland, Me., Jan. 12.—Herbert W. Supra, grand secretary of the Grand Lodge of Maine, I. O. O. F., and also grand scribe of the grand encampment, died at his home here yesterday, after making a brave fight at an at a week of typhoid fever that prostrated him about two weeks ago, the third attack of the same disease that he has had during recent years. Mr. Supra was born in Portland in 1868.

SOCIALIST GAIN IN GERMANY CHIEFLY AT RADICALS' EXPENSE

Results of Yesterday's Elections Now Given Practically Complete

(Canadian Press)

Berlin, Jan. 13.—At daylight today, with returns from yesterday's election practically complete, it was apparent that the radicals must be defeated before the character of the new parliament would be definitely known.

LOCAL NEWS

THE GO-AHEAD TIME

I. C. Stewart of the Maritime Merchant, who is in the city, will leave this evening for Montreal, his making the annual visit in connection with the spring meeting of the association, when they will discuss special rates of the forward movement in the maritime provinces.

PIERCED HIS FOOT WITH DARING NEEDLE

Jacob Friday Seemed to Suffer No Pain — Tried to Kill Wife in a Crazy Spree

(Canadian Press)

Welland, Ont., Jan. 13.—Jacob Friday, sixty years old, residing near Welland, became violently insane and after breaking all the windows of his house, attempted to kill his wife with a dagger. He was arrested by the police and taken to the hospital.

DARING FEAT TO DODGE CUSTOMS OFFICIALS

Smugglers on Belgian-France Border Get Away With Big Lot of Tobacco

(Canadian Press)

Paris, Jan. 13.—A daring feat has been accomplished by a band of smugglers on the main road running from Belgium into France. They carried a large consignment of contraband tobacco in a motor-car. The smugglers' plan was to cross the frontier near Houthain and follow the main road to Lille. The captain of the Lille excise station had the leading of the car, closely watched and arranged for word to be sent to him the night the smugglers departed.

KELHER LOSES APPEAL

Boston, Jan. 13.—The appeal taken by Wm. J. (Big Bill) Kelher from the decision of the U. S. District court in the case of Kelher vs. the National City Bank of Cambridge, was dismissed by the United States Circuit Court of Appeals yesterday. Kelher is confined in the East Cambridge jail pending the decision and is under sentence of eight years in the state prison. Unless the case is carried to the United States supreme court, Kelher will soon be transferred to Charlestown.

WINNIPEG IS AT WAR WITH SOCIAL EVIL

New Police Commission Gives up the Idea of Segregation

(Canadian Press)

Winnipeg, Man., Jan. 13.—Winnipeg's new police commission, organized yesterday, has declared war on the segregation of the social evil. Two years ago the old police commission adopted the radical policy of setting aside a section of the city for the protection of the police, if the women observed certain regulations, they could remain unmolested.

WARRNS ENGLAND TO BE PREPARED

Thirteen Below in City Today

(Canadian Press)

London, Jan. 13.—Lord Rosebery, in a speech at Glasgow University yesterday, warned the nation of the necessity of backing up the country's foreign policy which he said, for room or evil, had now embraced England in the continental system and might at any moment bring the country into contact with armies numbering millions.

TRAGEDIES IN COLD IN THE CANADIAN WEST

Prospector's Frozen to Death Crossing Lake—Hospital Patients Carried From Burning Building at 20 Below

(Canadian Press)

South Porcupine, Ont., Jan. 13.—J. W. Muir and Joe Lingault, two prospectors, were frozen to death while crossing Night Hawk Lake on the way to Thomas township. The temperature was more than twenty below. The stiffened bodies were found by a relief party sent out from Golden City. Three other men named Burrows, O'Connor and Johnston, are said to be missing. All five were on the way to do assessment work. The cold was intensified by a cutting west wind.

WARRNS ENGLAND TO BE PREPARED

Thirteen Below in City Today

(Canadian Press)

London, Jan. 13.—Lord Rosebery, in a speech at Glasgow University yesterday, warned the nation of the necessity of backing up the country's foreign policy which he said, for room or evil, had now embraced England in the continental system and might at any moment bring the country into contact with armies numbering millions.

TRAGEDIES IN COLD IN THE CANADIAN WEST

Prospector's Frozen to Death Crossing Lake—Hospital Patients Carried From Burning Building at 20 Below

(Canadian Press)

South Porcupine, Ont., Jan. 13.—J. W. Muir and Joe Lingault, two prospectors, were frozen to death while crossing Night Hawk Lake on the way to Thomas township. The temperature was more than twenty below. The stiffened bodies were found by a relief party sent out from Golden City. Three other men named Burrows, O'Connor and Johnston, are said to be missing. All five were on the way to do assessment work. The cold was intensified by a cutting west wind.

WARRNS ENGLAND TO BE PREPARED

Thirteen Below in City Today

(Canadian Press)

London, Jan. 13.—Lord Rosebery, in a speech at Glasgow University yesterday, warned the nation of the necessity of backing up the country's foreign policy which he said, for room or evil, had now embraced England in the continental system and might at any moment bring the country into contact with armies numbering millions.

TRAGEDIES IN COLD IN THE CANADIAN WEST

Prospector's Frozen to Death Crossing Lake—Hospital Patients Carried From Burning Building at 20 Below

(Canadian Press)

South Porcupine, Ont., Jan. 13.—J. W. Muir and Joe Lingault, two prospectors, were frozen to death while crossing Night Hawk Lake on the way to Thomas township. The temperature was more than twenty below. The stiffened bodies were found by a relief party sent out from Golden City. Three other men named Burrows, O'Connor and Johnston, are said to be missing. All five were on the way to do assessment work. The cold was intensified by a cutting west wind.

WEATHER BULLETIN

Table with weather forecasts for various locations including Toronto, Montreal, Quebec, etc.

Forecast—Fresh northerly winds; fine and very cold today and on Sunday.

Local Weather Report at Noon. 13th day January, 1912.

SUGAR AND MOLASSES. Sugar and molasses are reported cheaper this week than for some time.

CANADIAN CLUB LECTURER. Abram Knechtel, Dominion forestry expert, who was expected to address the Canadian Club this month has advised the secretary that, owing to the pressure of business in connection with the forestry convention to be held in Ottawa on February 7 and 8 he will be unable to come to St. John until after the convention.

TO MAGDALEN ISLANDS. The steamer Stanley with mail will sail for the Magdalen Islands from North Byng at ten a. m. on Wednesday the 17th instant.