KNOW HIS BUSINESS.

Bill was a politician of the ward heeler type, and a fairly successful one. For years he had been content to accept such crumbs of patronage as the organization saw fit to give him. Then, all of a sudden, his wife developed ambitions and decided that Bill ought to be a member of Congress. There was nothing for Bill to do but to go and see the boss about it.

The boss listened patiently to his arguments, but was unconvinced. "You've done good work for the party, Bill," he admitted, "and I'd like to help you, but this Congress thing is not in your line. You haven't got the class, and you know what it is."

"I don't, hey?" retorted Bill angrily. "You just show me a guy that gets the votes any cheaper than I do."—Isaac Anderson, in Judge.

Here's Your Chance to Save Money on Lumber

A careful survey of the Lumber market has convinced us that prices have struck bottom, and an advance is certain in the near future. There is already a stiffening; certain sizes are off the market; others have been marked up in the United States, notably 2 by 8. This is especially true of rough lumber, also of doors.

BUY NOW and head off high prices as far as you are concerned.
