

The Young People's Society of Christian Endeavor.

During the past year we have added to our membership twenty-nine (29), making a total membership of 174. Of these, however, quite a number, many of them from among our best workers, have left the city. Their names, however, remain on our roll as members of our Society until they connect themselves with some other.

Twenty five of our members publicly professed their faith in Christ during the year, and we have about forty of our members engaged in Sabbath School work as well as a number who are ready to act as substitute teachers when called on.

As usual, we held services at the Convalescent Home in turn with the other societies of the city, and had one service at the Hospital.

We held no Anniversary Services this year, owing to the Provincial Convention which was held in our church.

We take this opportunity of thanking all who in any way assisted in making the Convention the great success it was, especially would we thank the Managers for their kindness in placing the church at the disposal of the Executive Committee.

We made no special financial effort during '92. Contributions and collections amounted to about $110.00, of which amount $45.00 was sent to the Knox College Missionary Society, while Convention, printing and other running expenses, including a supply of Christian Endeavor Hymn Books, used up much of the balance.

We have also given some financial aid to needy members of our congregation, and on Christmas and New Year's
