John Colborne will manage matters a hade les fidiculously this winter. At all events we hope so, for our own sakes.

GRENCE. The accounts from Athens do not improve. The kingdom is represented to be going on from bad to worse. NAVAL PROSPECTS -- It is reported that brevet cank will very shortly be introduced into the navy-that the power heretofore used by the Board of Admirality, of striking ofners on the hat (without any in estigation into the nature or merits of he charges brought against them), 13 to be annulled; and that officers wishing to eure from the service will be permitted to do so in the same-manner as now practised in the army-viz., by the sale of their commissions. These advantages have been trequently urged by Sir Edward to drington in his repeated appeals to parliament, and not to any good feeling in their favour on the part of the lords of the admirality.

in the memoir of Miss Jennings there s one of the most singular anecdotes to on currous tradition respecting countess Dilton) still preserved the persuntry of the country in which she resided. It is related that, on Emperor of Russia possesses, in Laurium Castle, then only-one of the unerous Cestles and Palaces possessed by the Irish Dillons. the war - In the 21st of Jane, the signed between that power and night cororable Lerd Joha Russell presented to her Majesty a spleadidly count copy of the scriptures, in eight or nine languages, from a number of ladies the Protestant Dissenters of London and its violaty, as a token of their deep interest in the hamilness and davoted attroducent to the person and Government of their beloved Sovereion. The lock, which was prepared explessly for the our pose, in a truly elegant and most cosily menuer, her Majesty was most graciously pleased to accept, expressing to his Lordship her sense of its high value .- Ministerial Paper.

A Polyglott Bible has been printed in England and is for sale in this country, each opening, viz.: Hebrew, English, Latin, German, French, Italian, and Spanish, each page agreeing exactly in matter, and there is also a Syriac Bible which could not be printed on the same page with the others, in consequence of the peculiar construction of the letters; so that the "Polyglott Bible" contains the sacred text in nine different languages. -N. The Press .- "I have repeatedly urged upon Conservatives the necessity of upholding and bestow ing extensive patronage on the Press. It is the great instrument of power to every party; and in proportion to the support conferred upon it, will its influence be increased or diminished; for it is obvious that the means must be great, or the results will, of necessity, be small and insignificant. Upon no party in the state has this suggestion been so unceasingly or strenuously urged as upon the Conservative, and wherever it has been adopted none has derived equal benefit. If the means of fully comprehending the nature of Conservative principles were plac- ly made some new appointments ed in the hands of every man in to the Board of Education for this Nov. 13, 1838.

there would be comparatively few it behaves every man whose income will admit of it, to circulate conservative newspapers every Disinterestedly speaking, we are most desirable-and knowing as we do, the vast trouble and excirculation of Radical and Infidel newspapers, we are surprised at the apathy which appears still to exist as to the counteraction of their baleral effects by an active dissimination, of constitutional principles through the medium of the contervative press.

Power of Russia.—Some grave politicions, who undervalue the power of Russia, and think that Messrs. Rothschild are the arbiters of peace or war, significantly allude to, what they call her vulnerable point; they talk of her thancial embarrassments, and assert that the want of money will prevent a collision. Perhaps these reasoners are not aware that, personally, the the leath of Lord Dillon, she inhabited | territorial property alone, a revenue. ten times more considerable, than any civil list in Europe; that; th the estate round it, was as nothing to lose and every thing to gain, from the moment that the seat of war is carried beyond her administration is less expensive than any other; that Wer levies of troops are collected with a surprising economy for the cown, and at the cost of the landed proprietory; that every military expedition, once out of a country like Russia, is a speculation which can hardly full to turn out profileble to the empire, as there is Presentation of the Polyglott Bible to | scarcely on record a treaty of peace her adversaries by which she didnot ultimately gain some augmentation to her own territory .---Raikes's City of the Lzar

THE STAIR

WEDNESDAY, DECEMBER 5, 1838.

The Annual Meeting of the Wesleyan Missionary Society was held at the Wesleyan Chapel, in this Town, on Wednesday evenpresenting eight different languages at ing last. The Honorable Judge LILLY having taken the Chair, the Rev. Mr. Faulkner read the REPORT, which gave the most satisfactory and cheering account of the progress of genuine Christianity, through the instrumentality of the Wesleyan Society, in every part of the globe. Several excellent speeches were subsequently delivered and the collection greatly exceeded that of any former year.

Among the gentlemen on the platform we were happy to observe some highly respectable members of the Established Chufch, whose sentiments fully evinced that whatever shades of difference may exist in the minor matters of discipline, yet in the great and hallowed cause of Christian Missions, and upon the free and unrestricted dissemination of sacred scriptures, all were unanimous and UNITED.
