

Since Chesley congregation makes a request regarding their church debt of about $1200.00, where they propose to obligate themselves for the half of the debt if conference takes the other half, therefore

Resolved, that said congregation do all they can, then conference will see what it can do.

Since Bro. G. Braun of Hamilton station fell $160.00 short on his salary claims, therefore

Resolved, that $40.00 be appropriated him from the missionary treasury, since that station was made a mission by this conference.

Since Bro. C. Bolender has only small claims for salary as deacon, and since he had moving expenses this year not made good by his field, and thus requesting conference for a little assistance, therefore

Resolved, that $20.00 be granted him from the missionary treasury.

The request of St. Jacob's congregation for permission to sell their old parsonage and to build a new one shall be granted them.
