

the direction of St. Charles. On Saturday night another great fire was seen from the St. George, off Sorel Islands, in the direction of St. Dennis. A person who came into Sorel stated there that Col. Wetherall had induced the rebels to come out of their fortified houses at Saint Charles's by setting fire to the houses in the neighbourhood, and that he then had mowed them down by hundreds with his artillery.

Troops and steamers were in readiness at Montreal on Sunday to start for Verennes and Sorel on the receipt of dispatches which were momentarily expected from Colonel Wetherall.

Private letters received in town, say that 1200 of the rebels were killed, and 700 prisoners.

New York papers of the 21st inst. are received. Dr. Cote, E. E. Rodier, and Joshua Bell were at Swanton, Vt.; Papienau, Merchand, soupres, Francere, and Davignon, of St. Cesaire, and three others at Highgate. It is probable that the chief leaders at St. Dennis and St. Charles were E. S. Brown and Dr. Wolfred Nelson.
